Foreword

The preparation of this volume and the accompanying one,
A Course in Spoken Tamazight, was initiated and supported by the University of Michigan Center for Near Eastern and North African Studies as part of its general program of research and training on the languages and cultures of North Africa. A series of studies in anthropology, history and political science are in preparation, as well as instructional materials on Moroccan Arabic.

We are indebted to the Ford Foundation, which is in no way responsible for the specific consequences, for the grants to the Center that have made this work possible. We are most grateful for the tolerance of the people and government of Morocco in accommodating, and often actively assisting, the work of our faculty and students.

Acknowledgements

This book and its companion, A Course in Spoken Tamazight, were made possible by the cooperation of a number of individuals. In particular, I would like to express my appreciation to Mr. Mohammed Raamouch whose comments and constructive remarks were a great help to me in the formulation of the grammar of Ayt Ayache. Thanks are also due to Mr. Mohammed Guerssel who, by his linguistic competence and insightful observations, contributed greatly to the comparative notes on the two dialects.

In addition, I would like to express my thanks to Professor William D. Schorger, who, as Director of the Center for Near Eastern and North African Studies at the University of Michigan, initiated the program of research on North African languages and linguistics. The Center defrayed the costs of research assistants, field trips, typists, tapes and tape recordings, as well as, providing me with the time and opportunity to carry out the field research and the analysis.

I owe an especial debt to my colleagues Professor Ernest N. McCarus and Professor Gene M. Schramm who gave their time freely for linguistic discussions during the early stages of the research that led to the formulation of this present work; I am grateful to them for their many creative suggestions.

Also, I wish to extend thanks to Professor Lionel Galand of L'Ecole Nationale des Langues Orientales Vivantes, Paris, for his helpful comments on an earlier draft of the units, particularly the Ayt Ayache materials.

And I am also grateful to Professor J. Bynon of the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London for his enlightening discussions on the problems of Tamazight phonology and word boundary.

I am deeply grateful to my wife, Cecile, whose patience, constant encouragement and deep understanding have sustained my efforts throughout the work on this book.

Introduction

This book grew out of the great need for a short reference grammar of the Berber language in general and of the Tamazight dialect in particular that could be used by college students in an elementary course. The first version of the present grammar (1966) concentrated on the phonology and the morphology of the Ayt Ayache dialect of Tamazight and was used in an experimental class organized at the University of Michigan. The second version was completed in 1968, Work of the grammar of Ayt Seghrouchen Tamazight began in December 1968. The formulation of the comparative notes came after the completion of the grammar of the two affiliated dialects.

The language of this book is Tamazight, a dialect of Berber, spoken in the Middle Atlas Mountains of Morocco. Berber is spoken mainly in North Africa (Libya, Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco) and in Siwa (UAR). It is also spoken by the Tuareg groups in Muritania and the countries of the Sahara (Mali, Niger and Chad). Berber, a branch of the Afro-Asiatic family of languages is exclusively an unwritten language. It is divided into some three hundred or more distinct local dialects. The number of the speakers of Berber have been estimated to be 5,000,000[1] to 7,000,000[2] and over 10,000,000[3]. Berber speakers are discontinuously distributed from the Siwa Oasis in Egypt to the Atlantic Ocean and from the Niger River to the Mediterranean Sea. (See the map on p. vi for the distribution of the Berber dialects in general and the map on p. vii for the distribution of the Berber dialects particularly in Morocco.) It is possible to distinguish four basic dialect groups of Berber:

I. Tamazight, a dialect of the Middle Atlas Mountains in Central Morocco. Among the speakers of Tamazight (which number approximately 2,000,000) are the following groups (tribes,subtribes):

Beni Ouarain, Ait Morghi, Ait Alaham, Ait Youb, Marmoucha, Ait Seghrouchen, Ait Youssi, Beni Mguild, Zaiane, Zemmour, Ait Rbaa, Ait Seri, Beni Mtir, Guerouane, Ait Segougou, Ait Morghad, Ait Ayache, Ait Hadiddou, Ait Izdeg, Ait Sikhmane, Ait Atta.

II. Tashelhit (or Shilha), dialect of the High and Anti-Atlas and the Sous Valley in Southern Morocco. There are approximately 2,000,000 speakers of this dialect.

[3] Encyclopedia Britannica, vol. 3, Encyclopedia Britannica Inc., Wm. Benton, Chicago, 1970, p. 496.

III. Zenatiya, a dialect of about 2,000,000 speakers.

Zenatiya distinguishes the following sub-groupings:

 a) Rifian or Tarifit (spoken by about 0.5 million Rifians in Northern and Northeastern Morocco)

 b) Kabyli (spoken by about 1,300,000 speakers), dialect of the Kabyle tribes in the Kabyle Mountains of Algeria

 c) Zenatiya Mzabian (spoken by about 25,000
 speakers in Mzab by the Mzabites of Ghardaia)

 d) Shawia or Tashawit (spoken by about 150,000
 speakers in the Aures Mountains of Algeria)

IV. Tamashek, dialect of the Tuareg groups in Muritania and the open Sahara.

Many speakers of Berber in North Africa are bilingual, with Arabic being their second language. Many of the men speak Berber, Arabic and French, while the women are more conservative.

The main focus of the language of this book is the Tamazight dialects of Ayt Ayache and Ayt Seghrouchen. Ayt Ayache is a tribe composed of twenty-two villages along the Ansegmir River, at the foot of Ayachi Mountain, about thirty kilometers west of the town of Midelt. The limit on the east is National Highway No. 21, on the south the Ayt Yahya tribe at Road No. 3420 and on the north and west the Beni Mguild tribe at Road No. 3422.

Geographic Distribution of Berber Dialects in Morocco

Ayt Ayache Tamazight is mutually intelligible with the speech of neighboring tribes. Ayt Seghrouchen is a much larger tribe than Ayt Ayache. It is divided into three major sub-tribes: (1) Ayt Seghrouchen of Sidi Ali, known as Ayt Seghrouchen of Tichikout, (2) Ayt Seghrouchen of Imouzzer and (3) Ayt Seghrouchen of Talesinnt. The limits of the Ayt Seghrouchen of Sidi Ali are the Beni Ouarain to the north, Ayt Youssi to the south, Ayt Seghrouchen of Imouzzer and Beni Mguild to the west and southwest and Oulad El-Haj to the east. Ayt Seghrouchen of Imouzzer lies about 30 kilometers south of Fez, surrounded by Ayt Youssi, Beni Mtir and the town of Sefrou. The limits of Ayt Seghrouchen of Talesinnt are Oulad El-Haj, Ayt Yafelmane, the town of Midelt and Beni Guil. Both Ayt Ayache and Ayt Seghrouchen live by farming and by tending and rearing sheep. The main handicraft industry is tapestry.

Berber literature is, of course, mainly oral. It is this lack of written documents that makes the tracing of the history of the language somewhat difficult. However, attempts were made very early to record the language, using various writing systems. The oldest inscriptions come to us from Tunisia and Algeria and are over 2,000 years old. They are written in a consonantal system which resembles that of contemporary Tuareg. The national Berber alphabet is that of the Tuareg tribes, known as Tifinagh; it is composed of strokes, arcs, and dots as well as combinations of these. In this system, individual words are not separated and one can write from left to right or from right to left, from top to bottom ot from bottom to top. The Tuaregs call the symbols Tafineqq (singular) and Tifinagh (plural). The Tuaregs have no manuscripts, strictly speaking, only short notes on pots, bracelets, shields, etc. The only Berber texts we have are written in Arabic script. These are mainly religious texts used for instruction in Islam.

Following is a simplified table with samples of the Libyan inscriptions and Tuareg (Tifinagh), both ancient and contemporary inscriptions, with the corresponding Arabic script and phonetic equivalents.

Table of Berber and Arabic Script

This book is intended to be used mainly as a reference grammar for the dialect of Ayt Ayache, but, more importantly, it can serve as a source for the comparative study of the two dialects: Ayt Ayache and Ayt Seghrouchen. The order of presentation of the morphology of the dialects is arbitrary and, therefore, is not binding for the user.

At the beginning of each chapter appears a short summary of the contents of that section. Comparative notes on the two dialects sometimes appear at the end of a chapter (e.g., I. Phonology, II. The Numerical System, III. Pronominal Systems, IV. The Noun, VI. The Verb). However, in Chapter V. "Particles", a full discussion of each of the different groups of particles is given for Ayt Seghrouchen following that of Ayt Ayache. This is due to the great lexical difference between the two dialects in this domain.

Chapter VII. "Sentences" lists examples consisting of 157 pairs of sentences to exemplify the different structures of the two dialects. The first member of each pair of sentences is from Ayt Ayache, the second from Ayt Seghrouchen.

In studying the grammatical point in issue, often the user will find numerous examples listed. This serves a dual purpose: the exemplification of the grammatical point under discussion and the provision of additional lexical items.

It is hoped that this book may serve as a reference grammar for its twin, A Course in Spoken Tamazight (Center for Near Eastern and North African Studies, the University of Michigan, 1971), for indeed they complement one another. Usage of both texts is indispensable for mastery of Tamazight.

TABLES, FIGURES AND ILLUSTRATIONS

I. Phonology

This section discusses the phonology of Ayt Ayache (A.A.) Tamazight citing examples to illustrate the different phonological features of this dialect. At the very end of this section a few notes on the phonology of Ayt Seghrouchen (A.S.) are included. The two dialects are very much alike in their phonological systems except for the fact that /k/ and /g/are fricatives in Ayt Ayache whereas they are stops in Ayt Seghrouchen

I. Phonology

I.1   Tamazight, Ayt Ayache dialect, has the following consonants:
/btd kgq šž xɣ mnlr ḥꜤh/ (See Table 1)
and the following vowels:
/i u a/ (See Table 2)

I.1.1   The terms used in Table 1 are here explained in terms of the articulators that help produce the different sounds.
These are followed by explanations of the terms voiced and voiceless, lax and tense, labialized and finally flat.
It is also suggested that the student refer to Figure 1.
for a better understanding of these terms.

Bilabial: lower lip and upper lip
Labio-dental: lower lip and upper teeth
Dental: apex of tongue and upper teeth
Alveolar: apex of tongue and alveolar ridge
Alveo-palatal: apex of tongue and front part of palate
Palatal: tongue blade and palate
Post palatal: tongue blade and back of palate
Velar: tongue dorsum and velum
Uvular: tongue dorsum and uvula
Pharyngeal: root of the tongue and pharynx (constriction) Glottal: produced in the larynx by constriction of the two vocal chords Voiced (vd): during the production of voiced sounds the vocal chords are closed Voiceless (vl): during the production of voiceless sounds
          the vocal chords are open Lax: a speech sound produced with little muscular tension in the speech organs; e.g. /b/Tense: a speech sound produced with great muscular tension
      in the speech organ; e.g. /b:/

Labialized: a speech sound produced with added lip
             rounding; e.g., /q̇/ = [q̂] or [qᵂ].

Flat: a speech sound produced by pressing the blade of the tongue against the palate so that the articulation is velarized rather than dental; e.g. /ṭ/

I.1.2   Remarks on the pronunciation of the consonants and semi-vowels of Ayt Ayache Tamazight:
        a) /b t d f s š l z ž m n h w y /
            Group (a) are to varying degrees the same as in English .
            However the following slight differences are here noted for this Berber dialect:
            1. /b/ which is a voiced bilabial stop can sometimes be heard as voiced bilabial fricative [β] by very few speakers; e.g., /lbab/ [lβæβ] 'the door'

            2. /t/ has more puff with the air release than is the case in English; e.g.: /tafunast/ [tʰæfunæsth]'cow'

            3. On the other hand, we would like to note that /š/
                is pronounced as in English "she", e.g., /ša/ 'some'.
                /ž/ is pronounced as in English "measure"; e.g.
                /žhd/ 'to be strong'. /h/ is pronounced as in English
                "he", e.g. /dhn/ 'to rub ointment'. Finally /l/ in Tamazight is pronounced as English "clear" [l]; i.e., when preceding a vowel in English as in "lazy" or "late", but not like dark [l] in English, i.e. when following a vowel as in "feel". Tamazight /l/ is like the first [l] in English "level" but not the second one; e.g. Tamazight /lalal/ 'no' where all the three l's are pronounced like the first [l] in English
                "level".

b)   /k g q xɣ hʕ r/ [1] (for Comparative Notes on this chapter see pp. 19-70) Group (b) do not exist in English.

1. Of group (b) /k/ and /g/ are fricatives in Ayt Ayache (though they are stops in other dialects of Berber as well as in English; e.g.; /irkm/ 'it (m.) boiled', /iga/ 'he did'.

2. /q xɣ hʕ / are all back consonants known as "gutterals". Their place of articulation is uvular (/q xɣ /) and pharyngeal (/hʕ /).

3. /q/ is a voiceless uvular stop that is produced by the tongue dorsum (back) forming a stop against the uvula. Notice that the place of articulation for Berber /q/ is further back than that of English /k/: e.g., /taqdurt/ 'a pot'.

4. /x/ is a voiceless velar fricative. Its place of articulation is uvular. To pronounce /x/ produce English /k/ then move the dorsum (back of the tongue) back and produce a fricative; this produces /x/. This will sound like the "ch" in German doch, lachen and nach; e.g., /xali/ 'my maternal uncle'.

5. /ɣ/ is a voiced velar fricative. It has the same place and manner of articulation as /x/. Try to produce English /g/ then move the dorsum of your tongue back and produce the fricative /ɣ/. Let us call /ɣ/ the "gargling" sound; e.g., /iɣus/ 'he burnt'.

6. /h/ is a voiceless pharyngeal fricative. As we know pharyngeal sounds are produced by a constriction of the root of the tongue against the pharynx. This is not an easy sound for non-natives. It is advisable to practice pronoun-cing /h/ by producing a vigorous constriction of the pharynx slightly below and behind the extreme edge of the velum. This can be achieved by drawing the body of the tongue back toward the posterior wall of the pharynx with considerable force. Try this and it should produce /h/.

Let us call this sound the "panting" sound; e.g., /hml/ 'to flood'.

7. /ʕ/ is a voiced pharyngeal fricative. If you try to pronounce the English vowel "a" as in "father" with your tongue pressed down, you will hear /ʕ/ which we will call the "bleating" sound;
    e.g., /lʕil/ 'the boy'.

8. /r/ is a flap, i.e., a sound that is produced by the very rapid viberation of the tip of the tongue (apex); e.g., /ira/ 'he wanted'.

Flatness, Labialization and Tenseness

a) The domain of flatness, i.e., that of emphatic[*] consonants (also velarized and pharyngealized are terms used in this connection) is the syllable. We call /t d s z
    l r / a primary Tamazight "emphatic" set, the occurence of which affects other non-emphatic segments[] to become

---

[*] Emphatic articulation refers to the pressing of the blade of the tongue against the palate in formation of some consonant sounds;
the articulation is then velarized rather than dental or pharyngeal-ized rather than velar.

[] The term segment refers to a minimal portion of speech consisting of a spoken language item known as a consonant or a vowel.

emphatic. This latter set is here termed secondary emphatic set. Notice that in pronouncing the plain non-emphatic consonant the position of the tip of the tongue is dental for, let us say /t/ and the back of the tongue is depressed whereas in pronouncing its emphatic counterpart /ṭ/, the tip of the tongue is touching the alveolar ridge and the back of the tongue is raised up toward the velum. Also, note that in the case of the pronunciation of an emphatic consonant the lip muscles are contracted and the lips are extended ventrally whereas they are relaxed when pronouncing the plain consonants. (See figures 2 and 3 for /t/,/ṭ/and figures 4 and 5 for /s/, /ṣ/).

Examples of emphatic/non-emphatic consonants:

/tizi/	a pass
/ṭiẓi/	pubic hair
/bdu/	to begin
/bḍu/	to share
/tzur/	she is fat
/ṭẓur/	she visited holy places

b) Labialization is a feature of the back consonants /k g q xɣ /. It is manifested as simultaneous lip rounding when producing any of the above mentioned consonants. Thus /q/ or /q̂/ is pronounced as [q^w].[2] Labialization is an important feature for /k g q/ but not for /x ɣ/: e.g.,

| /s:k:r/ | sugar |
| /nk:r/ | we got up |

/ag:a/   he is /aġ:a/   a burden

/n:q:rt/   he shook it (m.) off /n:q̣:rt/   silver

/lɣš:/~ /lɣš:/   cheating
/axm:as/ ~ /axm:as/   share-cropper

c) A tense* (also fortis) consonant in general is produced with more force than its lax (also lenis) counterpart.[3]
The intensity and aspiration which are characteristic of the tense consonants give them a syllabic quality (i.e. maximum degree of sonority in the syllable) so that /b:/ is heard as [ᵉbbʲ] or [ᴵbb]; this is transcribed in most other systems that treated Berber phonology /ebb/ or /əbb/ or /ĕbb/.   In our system of transcription this will be realized as /b:/ and pronounced as [ᵉbb] except when proceeded by a vowel, e.g.

/d:u/   [ᵉddu]   to go /id:a/   [ɪddæ]   he went

I.2. Vowels

Tamazight has three vowels: /i u a/ (See Table 2).
Allophones of the three vowels are shown in Table 3. The marking convention shown in Table 3 is to be understood as follows:

---

* Tense or fortis here refers to a consonant pronounced with stronger articulation and greater tension on the muscles of the arti-culator, and usually, aspiration. Lax or lenis here refers to a consonant pronounced with lesser muscular tension in the speech organ and weaker, laxer articulation and, usually, no aspiration.

 a raised up vowel -[ᵉ], [ᵻ], [ᴵ] denotes that is a purely phonetic non-constrastive element.

[+] denotes the presence of a particular feature (e.g. [+ front] or [+high]) for a certain segment.

	i	ɨ	ɪ, e	u	ʊ, ɔ	æ	ə̇	a Front	+		+ +			+
Centralized		+					+
Back				+	+ +			+
High	+	+		+
Lowered			+ +		+ +
Low						+	+	+

Table 3:   Tamazight Vowel Allophones

i   as in English "beat", "eat", "feet"

ɨ   does not commonly occur in English

ɪ   as in English "bit", "fit"

e   similar to the initial vowel part of the English words "eight", "ace"

u   as in English "food", "boot", "sue"

ʊ   as in English "book", "wood"

o   roughly as in English "coat"

æ   as in English "sat", "hat", "mat"

ə̇   does not commonly occur in English but corresponds roughly to vowel in "cut"

a   corresponds roughly to the English vowel in "father"

Henceforth the following notations will be used:

C = /b f t d s z š ž k g q /

H = /h ḥ   w y /

X = C, H and L

γ, x = /γ x/

X = C, H, L, γ and x

V = / a i u /

Diacritics /./ and /:/ may be added and thus give, for example, /C̣/ and /C̣:/ representing /t/ and /t:/ respectively.

In the formulation of phonological rules the following conventions are used:

A------> B   A is rewritten as (or replaced by) B

(A)B or B(A)   A is optionally present, B is obli-gatorily present

$\begin{Bmatrix} A \\ B \end{Bmatrix}$ Either A or B occurs in this position

A---> B/____C   A is rewritten

A---> B/C____   A is rewritten as B after C

Vowel Allophones   (# denotes word boundary, e.g. /-a# and #a-/ mean final and initial /a/ respectively)

6.   /u/ ---------> [ʊ] [o] / { _____ {C / ɣ / x} / {C / ɣ / x} _____ }

     idur   he turned
     at:bdud   you (s) will share adimɣur   he will grow up lxudrt   vegetables

7.   /u/ ---------> [ʊw] / Χ(:) _____ #

     bdu   to begin
     f:u   to dawn

8.   /a/ ---------> [æ] / { # _____ Χ(:) / Χ(:) _____ Χ }

     azn   to send sal   to ask
     n:aɣ   to fight

9.   /a/ --------> [æ]   /   X(:)___#

        da   here

        la   no

        hn:a   to be peaceful

10. /a/ --------> [ɑ]   / $\left\{ \begin{array}{c} \underline{}C \cdot \\ C \cdot \underline{} \end{array} \right\}$

        hadr   to be present

        talb   to demand

I.3 Structure of the Syllable

If /X/ is followed by /X/ without an intervening /V/ there is a predictable transition. Transition between /X/ and /X/ is heard as Vocalic and is represented here by a superscript schwa [ᵊ] to show that it is a phonetic element (schwa occurs as the first speech sound formation in English "about" or as the last speech sound formation in English "sofa"). Thus a word such as /frhγ / "I was happy" is phonetically [#fᵊrhᵊγ #] consisting of two syllables. [ᵊ] is realized as [ɪ] before front consonants (e.g. /b, t, d.../) and as [ə] before back consonants (e.g. /k, x.../). It is also heard as voiced before voiced consonants (e.g. /b, g.../) and as voiceless before voiceless consonants (e.g. /f, t .../).

The rules governing the predictability of [ᵊ] may be stated as follows:

1.   / #X(:)#/ -----> [#ᵊX(:)#]

                            /g/   [ᵊg]   'to be, to do'

                            /š/   [ᵊš]   'to give'

                            /g:/ [ᵊg:] 'to knead'

                            /k:/ [ᵊk:] 'to pass'

2. $/#X\ X\ (:)#/$ --------------------→

$$\begin{cases} [\#X_1^{\vartheta} X_2 (:)\#] / X_1 \text{ is not } L \\[2em] [\#^{\vartheta} X_1 X_2 \#] \\ [\#X_1 X_2 \#] \end{cases} \Big/ X_1 \text{ is } L$$

/bd:/   [b$^{\vartheta}$d:]   'to stand up'

/ns/   [$^{\vartheta}$ns]   'to spend

      [n$^{\vartheta}$s]   the night'

/ls/   [$^{\vartheta}$ls]   'to get dressed'

      [l$^{\vartheta}$s]

3. $/\#X_1:X_2\#/$ ----→ $[\#^{\vartheta}X_1:^{\vartheta}X_2\#]$

/f:r/   [$^{\vartheta}$f:$^{\vartheta}$r]   'to hide'

/f:γ/   [$^{\vartheta}$f:$^{\vartheta}$γ]   'to go out'

/l:m/   [$^{\vartheta}$l:$^{\vartheta}$m]   'to spin'

4. $/#X_1 X_2 X_3 #/$ -------------------→

$$[\#X_1 X_2^{\vartheta} X_3 \#] / X_1 X_2 \text{ are not } \begin{cases} L \\ H \end{cases}$$

$$\begin{cases} [\#^{\vartheta} X_1 X_2 ^{\vartheta} X_3 \#] \\ [X_1 ^{\vartheta} X_2 ^{\vartheta} X_3] \end{cases} \Big/ \begin{cases} X_1 \\ X_3 \end{cases} \text{ is } \begin{cases} L, H \\ H, L \end{cases}$$

$$[\#X_1 ^{\vartheta} X_2 ^{\vartheta} X_3 \#] \Big/ X_2 X_3 = \begin{cases} L \\ H \end{cases}$$

/xdm/   [xd$^{\vartheta}$m]   'to work'

/dbγ/   [db$^{\vartheta}$γ]   'to dye'

/xdʕ/   [xd$^{\vartheta}$ʕ]   'to deceive'

/zʕf/   [zʕ$^{\vartheta}$f]   'to get mad'

/hdm/   [$^{\vartheta}$hd$^{\vartheta}$m]   'to demolish'

      [h$^{\vartheta}$d$^{\vartheta}$m]

/hbl/   [$^{\vartheta}$hb$^{\vartheta}$l]   'to become

      [h$^{\vartheta}$b$^{\vartheta}$l]   silly'

/nfh/   [$^{\vartheta}$nf$^{\vartheta}$h]   'to sniff

      [n$^{\vartheta}$f$^{\vartheta}$h]   tobacco'

      [ʕ$^{\vartheta}$d$^{\vartheta}$l]

/dmn/   [d$^{\vartheta}$m$^{\vartheta}$n]   'to guarantee'

/fhm/   [f$^{\vartheta}$h$^{\vartheta}$m]   'to understand'

/frh/   [f$^{\vartheta}$r$^{\vartheta}$h]   'to be happy'

5. $/\#X_1 X:_2 X_3 \#/$ --→ $[\#X_1 ^{\vartheta} X:_2^{\vartheta} X_3 \#]$

/fs:r/   [f$^{\vartheta}$s:$^{\vartheta}$r]   'to spread'

/sn:d/   [s$^{\vartheta}$n:$^{\vartheta}$d]   'to lean against'

/xm:m/   [xᵊm:ᵊm]   'to think'

/wk:l/   [wᵊk:ᵊl]   'to appoint as representative'

    The postulation of the phonetic syllable shown above supports the transcription of the data of this grammar where three (or more) non-vocalic segments appear next to each other: e.g., /tbrmnt/ "you (f.p.) turned" which is here represented phonetically as [tᵊbᵊr:ᵊmᵊnt].

    Words with the structure XVX, VXX, or XV consist of one syllable: e.g., /sal/ "to ask", /šib/ "to become white-haired", /ʕum/ "to swim", /af/ "to find", /amz/ "to take", /fa/ "to yawn". Words consisting of vowels and consonants follow the same rules shown above: e.g., /dat:hadar/ "she is present" is phonetically [dat:ᵊhadar] i.e. consists of three syllables; /ʕad:r/ "to meet" has two syllables [ʕad:ᵊr]. Note that /t:/ and /d:/ are not re-presented as [ᵊt:]and [ᵊd:] as was stated before since they are preceded by a vowel.

I.4.   Stress

    Word stress in Tamazight is a non-contrastive feature. The occurence of word stress is predictable: primary stress falls on the last vowel of the word (i.e. /V/ or [ᵊ]).

Examples:

/sál/	'to ask'
/ʕáwn/	'to help'
/šk:á/	'to doubt'
/slíl/	'to rinse'
/ʕúm/	'to swim'
/ámz/	'to take'
/áf/	'to find'
/rár/	'to return'
/bdú/	'to begin'

/adiníɣ/   'I will say'

/ndawá/   'we cured'

/tfafád/   'you (s.) woke up'

/isál/   'he asked'

/dayt:hadár/   'he is present'

     The above statement applies to words that phonemically do not contain a vowel /V/. As stated above, /bd:/ is phoneti-cally [bᵊd:], /frh/ is phonetically [frᵊh] and /fs:r/ is phonetically [fᵊs:ᵊr]. In these cases, word primary stress is on the [ᵊ] of the last syllable.

Examples:

/bd:/	[bᵊ́d:]	'to stand up'
/ls/	[lᵊ́s]	'to dress'
	[ᵊ́ls]
/f:r/	[ᵊf:ᵊ́r]	'to hide'
/frh/	[frᵊ́h]	'to be happy'
/ndr/	[nᵊdᵊ́r]	'to moan'
	[ᵊndᵊ́r]
/fs:r/	[fᵊs:ᵊ́r]	'to explain'
/tfs:rnt/	[tᵊfᵊs:ᵊrᵊ́nt]	'you (f.p.) explained'

Notes on the Phonology of Ayt Seghrouchen (A.S.) Dialect of Tamazight

1   /k/ and /g/ are stops in Ayt Seghrouchen. They are pronounounced the same as English /k/ and /g/.

Examples:

         kl:f   to entrust
         lgir:u   cigarettes

2   Lax /q̣/, /ḳ/ and /g̣/ do not occur in A.S.

3   /k:/ and /g:/ are tense counterparts of the stops /k/ and /g/ in A.S.

Examples:

         ik:r   he stood up
         ang:aru   the last

19

Additional Notes on the Phonology of Ayt Seghrouchen

The following phonological features are characteristic of Ayt Seghrouchen.

(a)   For some speakers the sequence /-lt-/ is pronounced as a side fricative, i.e. pronouncing /-lt-/ producing friction with air escaping at both sides of the tongue.
       This, however, occurs in few words.

       Examples:

              ultma   sister
              xalti   my maternal aunt altu   not yet

(b)   Following a tense /k:/ or /g:/, the vowel /u/ has a centralized allophone [ü].

       Examples:

              l:ayg:ur   he goes sk:ura   Sekoura (name of a village)

II. The Numerical System

This section discusses the Cardinal and the Ordinal Numerals in Ayt Ayache with enough examples to illustrate the structure of constructs with numerals. It also discusses Fractions. The very few differences that occur in Ayt Seghrouchen concerning the Numerical System are noted at the end of this section.

II.   The Numerical System

II.1   Cardinal Numerals

A.   1 - 3   (The Berber Numerals)[1]   (for Comparative Notes on this chapter see p. 33)

yun	one (m)
yut	one (f)
sin	two (m)
snat	two (f)
šrad	three (m)
šrat:	three (f)

1 - 3   (The Arabic Numerals)

waḥd	one
tnayn	two
tlata	three

Remarks:

(1)   The Arabic numerals 1 - 3 are used only for counting in order without naming things (they are INVARIABLE) and in combination with the tens, e.g. 21, 33, 72, etc.   The Berber numerals are used elsewhere.

(2)   The Berber numerals (1 - 3) answer such questions as:

šḥal l:wašun ay ɣuṛš ?   How many children do you have?

- yul:ʕil (<yun lʕil)   One boy.

- siyšir:an (<sin nišir:an)   Two boys.

- šrad išir:an (<šrad nišir:an)   Three boys.

$\begin{Bmatrix} \text{yut ntrbat:} \\ \sim \text{yut:rbat:} \end{Bmatrix}$ (<yut ntarbat:)   One girl.

- snat ntšir:atin (<snat ntišir:atin)   Two girls.

tšir:atin (<tišir:atin) is referred to as c.s.

(construct state of the noun), see Grammar of the Noun.

or   šḥal aya ?   How much is this?

     šḥal ayin: ?   How much is that?

- siw:ar:yal: (<sin nar:yal:)   Two rials.

- šrad war:yal: (<šrad nar:yal:)   Three rials.

or   šḥal ntfunasin ay ɣuṛš ?   How many cows do you have?

- yut ntfunast (<yut ntafunast)   One cow.

- snat ntfunasin (<snat ntifunasin)   Two cows.

- šrat: ntfunasin (<šrat: ntifunasin)   Three cows.

Examples:

st:a wᶜšrin l:ᶜil	26	boys
tmanya utlatin ntad:art	38	houses
tsᶜ my:a uxmsa usbᶜin l:ᶜil	975	boys
alf ust:a ust:in ntad:art	1066	houses

Remarks:

(1) The apocopated series / tlt, ṛbᶜ, xms, st:,

    sbᶜ, tmn, tsᶜ/ is used in the following constructs:

sbᶜ snin	7 years
ṛbᶜ my:a	400
sbᶜ alaf	7,000
tlt mlayn	3,000,000

(2) The numerals 11-19 have two forms. One form ends in /___r#/ and is used before /ᶜam/ "year" or /alf/ "thousand"

in constructs such as 13 years (old) or 15,000. The other, without /___r#/, is used elsewhere.

    11 - 19:

    Forms ending in /____r#/

ḥḍaʕšr ʕam	11 years
tnaʕšr ʕam	12 years
tltaʕšr ʕam	13 years
rbʕṭaʕšr ʕam	14 years
xmsṭaʕšr yum	15 days
sṭ:aʕšr yum	16 days
sbʕṭaʕšr ʕam	17 years
tmnṭaʕšr ʕam	18 years
tsʕṭaʕšr ʕam	19 years
xmsṭaʕšr alf	15,000

Compare the above with the following:

ḥḍaʕš l:ʕil	11 boys
tltaʕš ntrbat:	13 girls
xmsṭaʕš l:ʕil	15 boys
tsʕṭaʕš ntad:art	19 houses

(3) my:a ~ my:at

    Notice: /my:at/ is used before /alf/ or /ʕam/.
Examples:

my:a l:wašun	100 boys
rbʕmy:a ntfunast	400 cows
my:at alf	100,000
my:at ʕam	100 years

(4) Sometimes one gets the following answer

my:a q:l: ʕšṛa	90 (rials)
my:a ɣir ʕšṛa	90 (rials)
mitayn q:l: ʕšrin	180 (rials)
mitayn ɣir xmsa	195 (rials)

in response to:

šḥal aya ?	How much is this?

$$q:l: = minus$$
$$ɣir = except$$

Notice that such constructions as the above ("100 minus 10") are only used in connection with money, whereas ("5 minus 10") constructions are used in telling the time.

Examples:

lxmsa q:l: ʕšṛa	4:50 (time)
s:bʕa ɣir ʕšrin	6:40 (time)
t:sʕa wxmsa	9:05 (time)
lʕšṛa wʕšṛa	10:10 (time)

II.2 Ordinal Numerals

amzwaru (m)	the first

wis:st:aɛš (m)	the sixteenth
tis:st:aɛš (f)	the sixteenth
wis:tsɛṭaɛš (m)	the nineteenth
tis:tsɛṭaɛš (f)	the nineteenth

wis:ʕšrin (m)   the twentieth

tis:ʕšrin (f)   the twentieth

wis:tsʕin (m)   the ninetieth

tis:tsʕin (f)   the ninetieth

To this we might like to add:

ang:aru (m)   the last tang:arut: (f)   the last ing:ura (m.p.)   the last

ting:ura (f.p.)   the last anam:as (m)   the middle tanam:ast (f)   the middle inam:asn (m.p.)   the middle tinam:asin (f.p.)   the middle

Examples:

lʕil amzwaru   the first boy

as: amzwaru   the first day

tarbat: tamzwarut: the first girl

as: wis:ʕšra   the tenth day

tad:art tis:rbʕa   the fourth house

II.3 Fractions

amnaṣf[3]   half

t:ulut   1/3

r̥:ubuʕ	1/4
~ wis:r̥bʕa	1/4
lxumıs	1/5
~ wis:xmsa	1/5
s:udus	1/6
~ wis:st:a	1/6
wis:sbʕa	1/7
t:umın	1/8
~ wis:tmanya	1/8
wis:tsʕa	1/9
lʕušuṛ ~	1/10
wis:ʕšṛa	1/10

Examples:

tsʕud dumnaṣf	9:30 (time)
šid amnaṣfns	Give (me) half of it.
šid amnaṣf	Give me the half.
šiɣas wis:xmsa	I gave him 1/5.

Remarks:

(1) Fractions smaller than 1/10 (i.e. 1/11, 1/12, etc.) are composed of:
    wis: + cardinal numeral
    e.g.: wis:xmstaʕš   1/15

32

(2) Fractions /t:lult/ and /t:umɪn/ are mainly used in connection with inheritance shares.

Notes on the Numerical System in Ayt Seghrouchen (A.S.)

[1] In A.S. the only difference. in the system is:

idž (m), išt (f)	one
snat (m,f)	two
tlata (m,f)	three

[2] wis:snat (m,f)   the second

[3] amnasf ~ azin   half

Other than these exceptions, everything else in A. A. concerning the Numerical System itself holds for A.S.

III. Pronominal Systems

This section deals with the different pronominal systems in Ayt Ayache in an exhaustive manner. It discusses Personal Pronouns, Independent Possessive Pronouns and Suffixed Possessive Pronouns used in association with objects and those used in association with kinship terms, Pronominal Affixes for verbs and prepositions, Demonstrative Pronouns, Relative Pronouns, and Indefinite Pronouns. Since this is an area where there is considerable difference between the two dialects, the student will find ample examples at the end of this section showing the differences between the two dialects under the heading Notes on the Pronominal System in Ayt Seghrouchen.

III.   Pronominal Systems

III.1   Personal Pronouns

III.1.1   Independent Forms (Subject)   [1](for Comparative Notes on this Chapter see pp. 77-85)

nk: ~ nk:in	I
šg:	you (m.s.)
šm:	you (f.s.)
nt:a	he
nt:at	she
nḳ:ni	we
ḳn:i	you (m.p.)
ḳn:inti	you (f.p.)
nitni	they (m)
nitnti	they (f)

III.1.2   Emphatic Personal Pronouns (Subject)

nk: n:it	I myself
šg: n:it	you (m.s.) yourself
šm: n:it	you (f.s.) yourself
nt:a n:it	he himself
nt:at n:it	she herself
nḳ:ni n:it	we ourselves
ḳn:i n:it	you (m.p.) yourselves
ḳn:inti n:it	you (f.p.) yourselves
nitni n:it	they (m) themselves
nitnti n:it	they (f) themselves

III.2   Possessive Pronouns

III.2.1   Independent Set

III.2.1.1   Masculine (object possessed, s. or p.) [2]

winw	mine
winš	yours (m.s.)
win:m	yours (f.s.)
wins	his/hers
win:ɣ	ours
win:un	yours (m.p.)
win:ḳnt	yours (f.p.)
winsn	theirs (m.)
winsnt	theirs (f.)

Examples:

winmi igra ?	Whose field is this?
win ʕli (/wins/)	It's Aly's. (It's his.)
winmi iɣ:isin: g:mi lbab ?	Whose horse is in front of the door?
win ʕm:i (/wins/)	My uncle's. (It's his.)
win ʕt:i (/wins/)	My aunt's. (It's hers.)

III.2.1.2   Feminine (object possessed, s. or p.) [3]

tinw	mine
tinš	yours (m.s.)
tin:m	yours (f.s.)
tins	his/her

tin:ɣ	ours
tin:un	yours (m.p.)
tin:ḳnt	yours (f.p.)
tinsn	theirs (m)
tinsnt	theirs (f)

Examples:

tinmi tad:arta	Whose house is this?
tin ʕli (/tins/)	It's Aly's.(It's his.)
mat:a tad:artin: m:sin	Whose house is that over there
š:ražm izgzawn ?	with the two green windows?
tin ʕm:i (/tins/)	My uncle's. (It's his.)
tin ʕt:i (/tinɛ/)	My aunt's. (It's hers.)

III.2.2   Possessive Pronominal Suffixes

III.2.2.1   Suffixed to nouns ending in consonant   [4]

axam   (m.s.) tent

axam|inw	my tent
axam|nš	your (m.s.) tent
axam|n:m	your (f.s.) tent
axam|ns	his tent
axam|ns	her tent
axam|n:ɣ	our tent
axam|n:un	your (m.p.) tent
axam|n:ḳnt	your (f.p.) tent
axam|nsn	their (m) tent
axam|nsnt	their (f) tent

37.

ixamn   (m.p.) tents

ixamn	inw	my tents
ixamn	nš	your (m.s.) tents
ixamn	n:m	your (f.s.) tents
ixamn	ns	his tents
ixamn	ns	her tents
ixamn	n:ɣ	our tents

III.2.2.3   Possessive Pronominal Suffixes Used with Kinship Terms [5]

(a) ʕm:i   my uncle "fa br"

ʕm:iš   your (m.s.) uncle

ʕm:in:m   your (f.s.) uncle

ʕm:is   his/her uncle

ʕm:in:ɣ   our uncle

ʕm:in:un   your (m.p.) uncle

ʕm:inḳnt   your (f.p.) uncle

ʕn:insn   their (m) uncle

ʕm:insnt   their (f) uncle

The following kinship terms follow the above paradigm:

ʕm:i 'fa br', ʕt:i 'fa si', xali 'mo br', xalti 'mo si', mm:i 'son', il:i 'daughter'.

40

(b) b:a   my father

    b:aš   your (m.s.) father

    b:am   your (f.s.) father

    b:as   his/her father

    b:an:ɣ   our father

    b:an:un   your (m.p.) father

    b:an:ḳnt   your (f.p.) father

    b:ansn   their (m) father

    b:ansnt   their (f) father

(c) m:a   my mother

    mayš   your (m.s.) mother

    maym   your (f.s.) mother

    mays   his/her mother

    m:atnɣ   our mother

    m:atun   your (m.p.) mother

    m:anḳnt   your (f.p.) mother

    maysn   their (m) mother

    maysnt   their (f) mother

(d) nan:a   my fa mo

    nan:anš   your (m.s.) fa mo

    nan:an:m   your (f.s.) fa mo

    nan:ans   his/her fa mo

    nan:an:ɣ   our fa mo

    nan:an:un   your (m.p.) fa mo

    nan:anknt   your (f.p.) fa mo

    nan:ansn   their (m) fa mo

    nan:ansnt   their (f) fa mo

The following kinship terms follow the above paradigm:

yma 'brother', uttma 'sister'

(in 2nd person m.s. we get: ymaš and uttmaš)

(e) b:aḥl:u   my fa fa

    b:aḥl:unš   your (m.s.) fa fa

    b:aḥl:un:m   your (f.s.) fa fa

    b:aḥl:uns   his/her fa fa

    b:aḥl:un:ɣ   our fa fa

    b:aḥl:un:un   your (m.p.) fa fa

    b:aḥl:unknt   your (f.p.) fa fa

    b:aḥl:unsn   their (m) fa fa

    b:aḥl:usnt   their (f) fa fa

m:aḥl:u 'grandmother' (same as above paradigm)

(f) argazinw   my husband

    argazin:m   your husband

    argazns   her husband

           argaz   man

(g) tamd̥:ut̥:inw   my wife

    tamd̥:ut̥:nš   your wife

    tamd̥:ut̥:ns   his wife

           tamd̥:ut̥: woman

(h) lwašuninw   my children

    lwašunmš   your (m.s.) children

    lwašunn:m   your (f.s.) children

    lwašunns   his/her children

    lwašunn:ɣ   our children

    lwašun un   your (m.p.) children

    lwašun:knt   your (f.p.) children

    lwašun sn   their (m) children

    lwašun snt   their (f) children

/adg:al/ 'in-law' follows the above paradigm.
/tadg̥:alt/

Notice that if the kinship term ends in a vowel, then we do not add any suffix for 1st person singular (ʕm:i, xali, b:a, m:a, b:aḥl:u ...). If the term ends in a consonant

(argaz, tamd̥:ut̥: ...), then we add the suffix /-inw/ for 1st person singular.

III.3   Pronominal Affixes for Verbs and Prepositions

The Object Pronominal Affixes as well as the Orientational Affixes /d/ of proximity and /n:/ of remoteness are here referred to as movable affixes. A movable affix is one that may be either pre-verbal (i.e. prefixed to the conjugated stem) or post-verbal (i.e. suffixed to the conjugated stem).

The position of the movable affix depends on the presence or absence of:

(a) Temporal and/or Modal prefixes, i.e. prefixes deriving the different tenses and their modes: e.g., /ad-/ for future tense, /is-/ for interrogative mode and /ur-/ for negative mode

(b) One of the following prepositions and conjunctions /xf/ 'on', /qbl/ 'before', /ɣr/ 'to', /g/ 'until', /al:iy/ 'until', /ɣəs an:a/ 'when, as soon as', /l:iy/ 'when'

(c) Question words: e.g., /ma/ 'what', etc.

(d) Relative pronouns /ay/, /n:a/ 'who, which, that'

Examples (/-/ denotes morpheme boundaries)

(a) Temporal/Modal and Object Pronominal Affixes

i-sal-aɣ	He asked us.
ad-aɣ-i-sal	He will ask us.
da-aɣ-i-t:sal	He asks us.
is-ur-aɣ-i-sal	Didn't he ask us?

(b) Conjunctions and Orientational Affixes

ɣas an:a d-iwḍ-n iɣṛ-d	As soon as they arrived (+ Prox.)
ḥusa ifaḍma	Husa called (+ Prox.) Fadma.

44

(c) Question words and Pronominal Affixes

    ma-as tn:a faḍma iḥusa ?   What did Fadma tell Husa?

(d) Relative Pronoun and Orientational Affix

    argaz n:a d id:an yma ag:a   The man who came is my brother.

    mani luq:t ay d it:ʕayad muḥa ? When will Muha be back?

The above information may be diagrammed thus:

- [Temporal/Modal Aff. or Prep., Conjunc., Relative, Quest. word] +

       Post-Verbal   Pre-Verbal
    The order in which these movable affixes occur in relation to one another is as follows:

> Ind. Obj. + D. Obj. + Orient. Affix

Example:

/t-saʕf-t-d. (/>tsaʕftid/)   She was patient with him (+Prox.).

/i-ɣṛf-as-t-d/ (/>iɣrfastid/)   He threw it (m) at him (+Prox.).

/ad-as-t-d-i-ɣṛf/ (/>adastidiɣrf/) He will throw it (m) at him(+Prox)

Notice: The anaptyctic vowel /-i-/ occurs with /t-d/⟶/tid/

in the environment of D. Obj. + Proximity Affix for persons other than first.

Compare the above with:

/t-saʕf-aɣ-d/⟶/tsaʕfaɣd/   She was patient with us (+Prox.).

isal	tnt	he asked them (f)

Notice:

With the Habitual stem prefix /l:a-/ in Ayt Seghrouchen, the pronominal affix can be either pre-verbal or post-verbal:
e.g.,

damisawal	(A.A.)	he speaks to you (fs)
dašmit:sal	(A.A.)	he asked you (fs)

Compare

7 The Ayt Seghrouchen pronominal suffixed set associated with a transitive verb in the future is:

adi	ynɣ	he will kill me
aš:	inɣ	he will kill you (ms)
as:m	inɣ	he will kill you (fs)
at:	inɣ	he will kill him
adt:	inɣ	he will kill her
adax	inɣ	he will kill us
aš:un	inɣ	he will kill you (mp)
at:n	inɣ	he will kill them (m)
at:nt	inɣ	he will kill them (f)

8   The Ayt Seghrouchen Demonstrative Pronouns are:

      1.   Singular
         wu,   win:
         tu,   tin:

      2.   Plural
         inu,   inin:

IV. Grammar of the Noun

This section on the grammar of the noun is concerned mainly with Ayt Ayache. In general, the basic concepts of the system apply to Ayt Seghrouchen as well. Derivations (Noun stems from verb stems, those of number and gender, Augmentatives, Diminutives, etc.) are similar in both dialects. Construct State of the Noun is also more or less alike in both dialects. In other words, the differences between the two dialects as far as the grammar of the noun is concerned are phonological and lexical rather than morphological. Notes showing such differences appear at the end of this section.

IV.   The Noun

IV.1   Introduction

Morphemes in Tamazight may be divided into three major classes: particles, stems and affixes, or if considered in terms of more general terminology, into two classes, namely Major and Minor classes of morphemes. The major classes are stems; the minor classes are particles and affixes. This classification into stems, particles and affixes is based on the two morphological features shown in this figure:

- [Dependent] +

Particles and Stems   Affixes
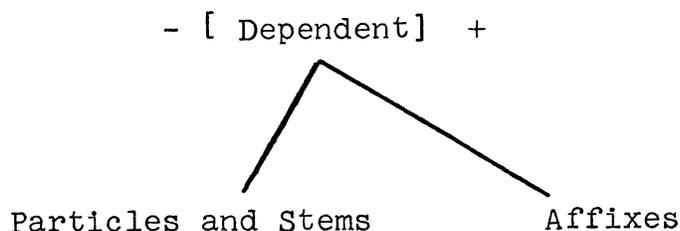

Stems are either Verb Stems or Noun Stems. This distinction is based on the kind of affix with which they occur. For a complete discussion of the Verb Stems see Grammar of the Verb. Any stem in Tamazight is either Basic or Derived.

Affixes are either verb or noun affixes. Verb affixes are either movable or fixed affixes. (See Grammar of the Verb.) All noun affixes are fixed affixes.

IV.2   Basic and Derived Noun Stems and Nouns

A Basic Noun Stem is one which has no relation to any verb stem from which it could be derived. Examples of a Derived Noun Stem are the stems of Nouns of Action (N-act), Agent (N-agt), Instrument (N-instr), Place (N-loc), and Occupation (N-occup). This means that the stems of such nouns are derived from verbs that exist in the language and that the different numbers and genders of the nouns are derived by the noun affixes discussed in IV.2-1 below.

IV.2.1   Basic Noun Stems and Nouns

A Basic Noun occurs with the same affixes as a derived noun. In most cases whether the noun is basic or derived, its number and gender are distinguished thus: (a) a plural noun has the suffix /-n/; (b) a singular noun does not have this suffix, but has the prefix /#a-/ whereas the plural has prefix /#i-/; (c) a feminine noun has the prefix and/or the suffix /t-/:

\left.
\begin{cases}
/t___/ \sim /t__t/ \sim /t__t:/\sim /__t/ \sim \\
/ta__/ \sim /ta__t/\sim /ta__t:/ \quad\quad\quad\;\; \Big\} \text{ for f.s.} \\
/ti__/ \sim /ti_in/ \sim /t__/ \sim /__t/ \quad\; \text{ for f.p.} \end{cases}

This information concerning gender and number for nouns, both basic and derived, may be diagrammed thus:

(a) for Number

$$- [/-n#/] +$$

Singular   Plural

(b) for Gender

Masculine   Feminine
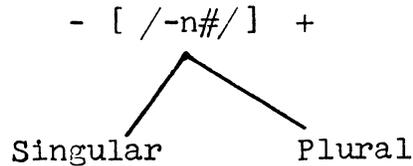

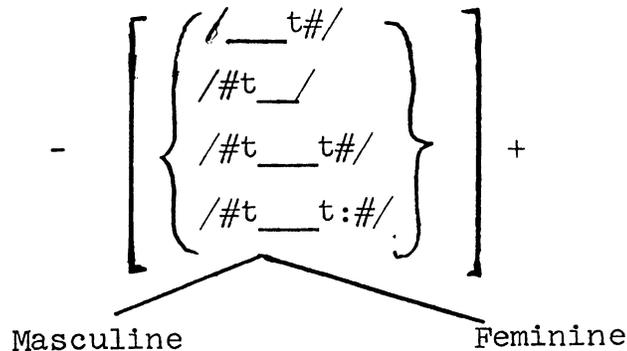

Many basic nouns in Tamazight are borrowed from Arabic. Some of the Arabic loan nouns were borrowed with the Arabic definite article /ʔal-/ 'the' (⟶/l-/ in Moroccan-Arabic and Tamazight), which loses its syntactic function in Tamazight and comes to be an inseparable part of the noun since the opposition

Definite/Indefinite is NOT operable through the article:

e.g., Arabic loan basic nouns /lk:as/ 'a glass' or 'the glass', /lbab/ 'a door' or 'the door', /ṣ:aliḥ/ [] 'a saint' or 'the [] Rules concerning the assimilation of /l-/ of the Arabic definite article to a following dental operate in Tamazight as well. Also note that the formation of the plurals of such loan nouns in most cases follows the Arabic pattern whether Classical or Colloquial: e.g., /lk:as/ has plural /lk:isan/, /lbab/ has plural /lbiban/ and /ṣ:aliḥ/ has plural /ṣ:aliḥin/.

saint' as well as native basic nouns: /argaz/ 'a man' or 'the man', /aḍaḍ/ 'a finger' or 'the finger', /agl:id/ 'a king' or 'the king'.

Another set of basic nouns (also Arabic loans) has undergone accomodation to the native pattern: e.g., Moroccan-Arabic (M.A.) /xb:az/ 'baker' and its plural /xb:aza/ are derived from the M. A. verb /xbz/ 'to bake', whereas Tamazight has /a-xb:az/ 'baker', /i-xb:az-n/ 'bakers' but not the basic verb stem /xbz/ from which the nouns referred to above are derived. However, a look at Tamazight derived nouns explains the above pattern of derivation. There is a native pattern that derives the following nouns from the basic verb V: /zdm/ 'to collect wood', /azd:am/ 'one who collects wood (m.s.)', /izd:amn/ (m.p.); /xdm/ 'to work', /axd:am/ 'worker (m.s.)', /ixd:amn/ (m.p.). Notice that the same derivational pattern applies to /zdm/, a native stem, as well as to the Arabic loan stem /xdm/. The difference between /azd:am/, /izd:amn/, /axd:am/, /ixd:amn/ on one hand and /axb:az/, /ixb:azn/ on the other hand is that the first set shows derived nouns whereas members of the latter do not. In almost all the cases the gender of the loan word is preserved: e.g., Berber /tawriq:t:/ 'a piece of paper' (<classical Arabic /waraqat-/ 'a piece of paper' f.s.) has the Berber affix /ta___t:/ denoting f.s. noun. Compare this to the derived noun stem /tararit:/ 'vomiting/ (</rar/ 'to give back'). In Arabic, as well as Berber, all nouns ending in /-t/ are feminine. Very few Arabic exceptions have been observed:

e.g., /ʔalxalifat-/ 'Caliph' is a masculine noun in classical Arabic.
This Arabic loan appears in Berber as /lxlift/ 'administrative job' which is, among the very few Berber exceptions, a masculine noun. In Moroccan Arabic /lxlift/ is also masculine.

A third set of basic nouns (i.e. not derived from verb stems) borrowed the singular noun only but formed their plurals
according to native patterns: e.g., Berber /lfqih/ ' learned man, a teacher' is borrowed from classical Arabic /ʔalfaqīh/ 'legist, jurisprudent' which in turn is derived from the Arabic verb /faqiha/ 'to understand, comprehend'. The plural of the Arabic noun /ʔalfaqīh/ is /ʔalfuqahaʔ/ whereas the plural of the Berber /lfqih/ is /idlfqih/. Here, /lfqih/ is a basic noun (no Berber verb /fqh/) and /idlfqih/ is derived from the basic noun, by the Berber plural prefix /id-/. Compare this to /butarda/ 'washer (m.s.)' /idbutarda/ 'washers (m.p.)' derived from the native verb stem /arid/ 'to be washed'.

Another set of basic nouns are the numerals 4 - ∞ which are borrowed from Arabic. Together with the Arabic cardinal numerals 1-3 there is a native set (for more information on the numerals see Numerical System, pp. 22-29).

Another set of basic nouns shows borrowing from French:
e.g., Berber /lag:ar/ 'station', /lik:ul/ 'school', /lbiru/
'office', /lk:riyu/ 'pencil', /t:rik:u/ 'sweater', /ṭ:umubil/
'motor-car', /ž:rda/ 'garden' for French "la gare, l'école,

le bureau, le crayon, le tricot, l'automobile, le jardin" respectively. It is interesting to notice the assimilation of /l-/ to a following dental in the last three examples.

IV.2.2 Derived Noun Stems and Nouns

As stated in IV.1 above, a derived noun is one that is related (by derivation) to a noun stem, which in turn is derived from a verb stem in the language by one of the derivational affixes shown in IV.2.1 above: e.g., (Noun stems are underlined.)

Verb		N-m.s.	N-m.p.	N-f.s.	N-f.p.
xdm	to work	a-xd:am	i-xd:am-n	ta-xd:am-t 'worker'	ti-xd:am-in
zdm	to collect wood	a-zd:am	i-zd:am-n	ta-zd:am-t 'wood collector'	ti-zd:am-in

IV.3   Definiteness, Gender and Number
IV.3.1   Definite/Indefinite

The definite article does not exist in Berber. Thus the word /argaz/ can mean either 'a man' or 'the man'. Nouns borrowed from Arabic appear in Berber with the definite article
if they happen to be borrowed with the Arabic definite article / al-/ (which is also /l-/ in Berber). Assimilation rules observed in Arabic for the /-l-/ of the definite article before a dental are also applicable to Arabic loan words in Berber if they happen to be borrowed with the definite article:

e.g., /s:ḳ:r/ 'sugar', /ṣ:aliḥ/ 'saint', /z:bib/ 'raisins', /ṭ:alab/ 'request', /d:unit/ 'the world', /ḍ:ra/ 'corn' (</lsḳ:r/, /lṣaliḥ/, /lzbib/, /lṭalab/, /ldunit/, /ldra/). All the above nouns, borrowed with the definite article from Arabic can be translated as either definite or indefinite in Berber.

IV.3.2 Gender and Number

Nouns in Berber are either masculine or feminine in gender and singular or plural in number. In most cases the gender and number of a noun could be distinguished by its affix.

IV.3.2.1 Noun Affixes
IV.3.2.1-a Masculine Singular Prefixes

Note: 1) /u-/ and /i-/ are not common prefixes for m.s. nouns.
2) /l-/ occurs mainly in Arabic borrowings
3) /X:-/ refers to a tense segment that results from assimilation of /l-/ referred to above to a following dental.

93

Examples:

kašf	to foretell	akašf	foretelling
rdm	to demolish	ard:am	demolisher
ʕawn	to help	amʕawn	helper
f:ɣ	to go out	ufuɣ	going out
arid	to be washed	butarda	washer
bd:	to stand up	ibd:i	standing up
hbl	to become silly	lhbal	silliness
t̪rẓ	to embroider	t̪:rẓ	embroidering
		azgu	wind
		anu	well
		isl:i	stone
		urti	garden
		amḫḍar	pupil
		lɣul	ogre
		ṣ:nduq:	box

IV.3.2.1-b Masculine Plural Affixes

$$\left\{ \begin{array}{l} /i\underline{\quad}n/ \\ /im\underline{\quad}n/ \\ /i\underline{\quad}tn/ \\ /i\underline{\quad}/ \end{array} \right\}$$

Note: /i-/ is prefixed to nouns that are referred to as "Broken Plurals" as opposed to /i___n/ that is affixed to nouns referred to as "Sound Plurals".

Examples:

rgm	to insult	argam	insulting	irgamn	insults
kašf	to foretell	amkašf	foreteller	imkašfn	foretellers
dawa	to cure	adawa	cure	idawatn	cures
d:uk:l	make friends	amd:ak:l	friend	imd:uk:al	friends
		adašu	sandal	iduša	sandals
		aglmam	lake	igulmamn	lakes
		abluh	date(fruit)	ibluhn	dates

IV.3.2.1-c Feminine Singular Affixes

Note: (1) /l___t/ occurs in Arabic loans

(2) /X:___/ of the affix /X:__t/ represents an /l-/

that assimilates to a following dental: e.g.,

/l-d-/ ⟶ /d:-/ as in /d:ʕut/ 'a case' (</ldʕut/).

Examples:

kašf   to foretell   amkašf   foreteller (m.s.) tamkašft (f.s.)

lum	to blame	talumt	blame
z̧:al̞	to pray	taz̧al:it:	praying
k:	to pass	tik:it	passing
f:r	to hide	tufra	hiding
ls	to dress	mlsiwt	dressing
xdm	to work	lxdmt	work
dʕu	to sue	d:ʕut	case

IV.3.2.1-d   Feminine Plural Affixes

$$\begin{Bmatrix} /\text{ti(m)}\underline{\quad}\text{in}/ \\ /\text{ti}\underline{\quad}/ \\ /\text{tu}\underline{\quad}\text{n}/ \\ /\text{ist-}/ \\ /\text{ta}\underline{\quad}\text{in}/ \end{Bmatrix}$$

Note: (1)   /ti___/ derives a "Broken" feminine plural noun whereas /ti___n/ derives a "Sound" feminine plural noun.

       (2)   /ta____in/ is a rare femine plural affix.

Examples:

rḥl	to move	tarḥ:alt	nomad (f.s.)	tirḥ:alin (f.p.)
safr	to travel	tamsafrt	traveller (f.s.)	timsafrin (f.p.)
zuz:r	to winnow	tazrt	pitchfork (f.s.)	tizar (f.p.)
ḥm:m	to bathe	m:lḥm:am	public bath attendant (f.s.)	istm:lḥm:am (f.p.)

tudayt	Jew (f.s.)	tudayin (f.p.)
tuš:nt	jackal (f.s.)	tuš:an (f.p.)
taxamt	tent (f.s.)	tixamin (f.p.)
tal:unt	drum (f.s.)	tal:unin (f.p.)
taq:ayt	head (f.s.)	taq:ayin (f.p.)

IV.4   Plural Nouns

Plural Nouns besides being masculine or feminine are divided into

(a)   External Plurals or Sound Plurals

(b)   Internal or Broken Plurals

(c)   Mixed Plurals

aɣtir	iɣtran	thorn
aɣuṛ	iɣran	honey comb
axdil	ixdlan	belly

Remarks on the Pluralization of Masculine Nouns

Sometimes the /#a-/ of the singular does not change in the plural. Singular nouns that have /#i-/ or /#u-/ show the same prefix in their plural forms. Sometimes prefix /#a-/ of the singular noun changes to /#u-/.

axbaš	axbašn	claw
aluq:id	aluq:idn	match
ad:bliž	ad:bližn	bracelet
ašbab	ašbabn	eye lash
anšuš	anšušn	lip
aġ:a	aġ:atn	burden
ad:žar	ad:žar:	neighbor
anu	anutn	well
imšli	imšliwn	lunch
ilis	ilisn	raw wool
imnsi	imnsitn	supper
izikr	izakar:	cord
ifd:iwž	ifd:iwžn	spark[4]
iɣil	iɣal:n	arm
iḥnbl	iḥnbl:	blanket
iɣzdis	iɣzdisan	rib
ilɣ	ilɣan	leg
itri	itran	star
iḍ	iḍan	night
izli	izlan	song

lhašt	lhwayž	thing
lxudrt	lxudrat	vegetable
lɣabt	lɣwabi	forest

IV.5.3   Mixed Plurals

(Internal Plurals with External Suffixes)

tadist	tidusin	belly
tafust	tifusin	hand
tawariyt	tiwaryiwin	dream
tad:art	tad:rwin	house

Notes on Some Feminine Nouns

(1) Some feminine Arabic nouns were borrowed into Berber with the Arabic feminine marker /-a#/ in dialectical Arabic (/-t-/ in classical Arabic), e.g.:

Dialectical Arabic	Berber
r:iha	r:iht	odor
ʔlhaža	lhašt	thing
lɣaba	lɣabt	forest
lqaʕida	lq:aʕida	tradition
s:ulṭa	s:ulṭa	authority
lḥkuma	lhk:uma	government
lžamaʕa	lžamaʕa	council

(2) Some singular feminine nouns (native or loan) do not change their /#ta-/ to /#ti-/ in the plural, e.g.:

Singular	Plural
tal:unt	tal:unin	drum
tad:art	tad:rwin	house
tadžart	tadžarin	neighbor
taq:ayt	taq:ayin	head
taɣma	taɣmiwin	thigh
tašna	tanšnwin	term of reference for co-wife

Dialectical Arabic	Berber
r:iha	r:iht	odor
ʔlhaža	lhašt	thing
lɣaba	lɣabt	forest
lqaʕida	lq:aʕida	tradition
s:ulṭa	s:ulṭa	authority
lḥkuma	lḥk:uma	government
lžamaʕa	lžamaʕa	council

(2) Some singular feminine nouns (native or loan) do not change their /#ta-/ to /#ti-/ in the plural, e.g.:

Singular	Plural
tal:unt	tal:unin	drum
tad:art	tad:rwin	house
tadžart	tadžarin	neighbor
taq:ayt	taq:ayin	head
taɣma	taɣmiwin	thigh
tašna	tanšnwin	term of reference for co-wife

(3) Some feminine singular nouns ending in /-t:#/ show the following change in plural: /-t:#/ ———→ /-t-/

Singular	Plural
talat:	talatin	ditch
tislit:	tislatin	bride
tizit:	tizatin	fly
tifrit:	tifratin	cave

IV.6 Miscellaneous

IV.6.1 Plurals with /id-/ (m,f) and /ist:/ (f) [5]

Singular	Plural
lfq:ih	idlfq:ih	learned person
bab	idbab	owner
bibi	idbibi	turkey
ʕm:i	idʕm:i	my paternal uncle
xali	idxali	my maternal uncle
ʕt:i	ist:ʕt:i ~ idʕt:i	my maternal aunt
xalti	ist:xalti ~ idxalti	my maternal aunt
ut:ma	ist:ut:ma	my sister
lxzin	idlxzin	storing place
lmizan	idlmizan	balance, set of scales
lḥm:mam	idlḥm:am	bathroom
lḥzam	idlḥzam	belt

114

butarda	idbutarda	washer (m)
m:tarda	idm:tarda	washer (f)
d:unit	idd:unit	world
s:rir	ids:rir	bed
t:aman	idt:aman	price

IV.6.2 Plurals with /ayt-/ (m)

undir	aytundir	a man from the tribe of Ayt Oundir
wiɣrm	aytiɣrm	a man from one's village

IV.6.3 Plurals of Different Roots [6]

Singular	Plural
lʕil	lwašun	boy
tarbat:	tišir:atin	girl
tamdut:	tiwtmin	woman
tagmart	tiɣal:in	mare
tixsi	ul:i	sheep
tid:	al:n	eye

IV.6.4 Diminutives [7]

Certain masculine nouns give a diminutive noun by prefixation of /#t-/ and suffixation of /-t:#/ (or /-t#/).

115

Masculine Noun	Diminutive	Meaning
afus	tafust:	small hand
aḍar	taḍart:	small foot
aɣbalu	taɣbalut:	small spring
agrtil	tagrtilt	small mat

IV.6.5 Augmentative [8]

Certain feminine nouns give Augmentatives by a process that is the reverse of Diminutive Formation mentioned in IV.6.4 above

Feminine Noun	Augmentative	Meaning
taxamt	axam	big tent
tašṭ:abt	ašṭ:ab	big broom
tamart	amar	big beard
tabḥirt	abḥir	big garden

IV.6.6 Collective Nouns [9]

IV.6.6.1 Singular Collective Nouns

udi	butter
uz:al	iron
az:ar	hair
imndi	grain
ḍ:ra	corn
aɣṛum	bread
aɣ:u	milk
tadunt	grease, shortening, cooking fat

tduṯ:	wool
tisnt	salt
tuya	grass
iɣd	ashes

IV.6.6.2   Plural Collective Nouns [10]

aman	water
idam:n	blood
ilam:n	bran
lflus	money
md:n	people
irdn	wheat
tarwa	offspring, progeny
tiɣrad	salary
imas:n	plough
tir:a	writing
timẓin	barley
tuzlin	scissors
imrɣan	sauce
iršan	dirt
ifsan	seeds

IV.6.7   Noun of Unity [11]

The noun of unity is formed from a collective noun by the same process used in IV.6.4 above for the formation of Diminutives.

aẓalim	onions	taẓalimt	an onion
z:nbuʕ	oranges	taz:nbuʕt	an orange
lmšmaš	apricots	talmšmašt	an apricot
lxux	peaches	talxuxt	a peach
xiz:u	carrots	taxiz:ut	a carrot

In some cases the noun of unity is achieved by the use of /aḥbub/ "grain" before the collective noun, e.g.:

aḥbub nṛ:uz	a grain of rice
aḥbub nḍ:ra	a kernel of corn
aḥbub w:adil	a grape

IV.6.8 Composed Nouns [12]

(1) u = (son of)	of (m.s.)
(2) ut = (daughter of)	of (f.s.)
utmazirt	country man
ut:mazirt (<uttmazirt)	country woman
(3) ayt-	(m.p.)
(4) ist:-	(f.p.)
ayt:mazirt	country men
ist:mazirt	country women
(5) bu- (father of)	of (m.s.)
(6) idbu-	of (pl.)
buyḥl:al	liar (m)
idbuyḥl:al	liars (m)

(7)   m: (mother of)   of (f.s.)

(8)   idm:-   of (f.p.)

    m:iḥl:al   liar (f)

    idm:iḥl:al   liars (f)

(9)   bab (owner)   master of, owner

    bab ntad:art   master of the house

(10) lal: (fem.)

    lal: ntad:art   mistress of the house

(11) /bu-/ and /m:/ can denote a 'trade' or 'occupation'

    buʕari   one in charge of a forest

    buwɣanim *   one who plays the flute bulḥm:am   public bath attendant (m)

    m:lḥm:am   public bath attendant (f)

  * (aɣanim 'reed'; for change of a to w see IV. below)

IV.7   Construct State of the Noun[13]

A noun in the construct state (c.s.) changes its shape.

(/tafunast/ ⟶ /tfunast/ 'cow'; /argaz/ ⟶ /urgaz/ 'man' ...etc.)

IV.7.1   Changes occuring in masculine nouns

$$/\#a-/ \longrightarrow \begin{Bmatrix} -u- \\ -w:- \\ -wa- \end{Bmatrix}$$

$$/\#i-/ \longrightarrow \begin{Bmatrix} -i- \\ -y- \\ -yi- \end{Bmatrix}$$

$$/\#u-/ \longrightarrow /-wu-/$$

babuxam (<axam)	head of the house
lk:as w:atay (<atay)	a glass of tea
axam isli (<isli)	the tent of the fiance
ag:r: yirdn (<irdn)	wheat flour
taql:alt w:udi (<udi)	the butter jar
iʕd:a utfl (<atfl)	plenty of snow
tad:art uryaz (<aryaz)	the house of the man
aɣrum yirdn (<irdn)	wheat bread
inɣayi wuxs (<uxs)	tooth ache (it killed me of the teeth)
lbab w:urti (<urti)	the door of the garden
taḍuṭ: w:ul:i (<ul:i)	wool of the sheep
šrad w:us:an (<us:an)	three days

IV.7.2   Changes occuring in feminine nouns

$$/\#tu-/ \longrightarrow /-tu-/$$

argaz ntmḍ:ut: (<tamd:ut:)	husband
ṣ:aliḥin ntmizar (<timizar)	local saints
ixf ntuš:nt (<tuš:nt)	head of a jackal
utmazirt (<tamazirt)	someone from your country
iš: ntfunast (<tafunast)	the horn of the cow
taqb:ut ntaḍuṭ (<taḍut)	a woolen garment

iy:is ntslit (<tislit)   the horse of the bride

amksa ntɣḍ:n (<tiɣḍ:n)   the shepherd of goats

aman ntisirt (<tisirt)   the water of the mill

šrat: ntuzlin (<tuzlin)   three scissors

bu tuzlin (<tuzlin)   the owner of the scissors

lbab ntad:art (<tad:art)   the door of the house

IV.6.3 The noun is in the construct state if:

(a) the noun is in genitive construct N_1 of N_2 (N_2 changes)

tad:art urgaz   the house of the man

(urgaz c.s. of argaz)

lk:as w:atay   a cup of tea

(watay c.s. of atay)

argaz ntmḍ:uṭ: husband (man of the woman)

(tmḍ:uṭ: c.s. of tamḍ:uṭ:)

iš: ntfunast   the horn of the cow

(tfunast c.s. of tafunast)

(b) the noun is the subject of a verb

and it follows the verb

if:ɣ umaziɣ   The Berber went out.

(umaziɣ c.s. of amaziɣ)

iswa urgaz atay   The man drank tea.

(urgaz c.s. of argaz)

Compare the above two examples with the following where the noun is also the subject of the verb but precedes it:

amaziɣ if:ɣ   The Berber went out.

argaz iswa atay   The man drank tea.

However, we have to state that the native speaker of Berber prefers the order vb. + subj. rather than subj. + vb.

(c)   the noun follows a numeral, e.g.:

(yun [m] , yut [f] 'one' , xmstaʕš 'fifteen' , st:aʕš 'sixteen')

yun was: a day (one day)

(was: c.s. of as:)

yut tmd:ut: a lady (one lady)

(tmd:ut: c.s. of tamd:ut:)

xmstaʕš ntfunast   15 cows

(tfunast c.s. of tafunast)

st:aʕš war:yal   16 rials

(war:yal c.s. ar:yal)

(d)   the noun follows a certain preposition:

ɣ txamt   in the tent

(txamt c.s. of taxamt)

xf tfunast   on the cow

(tfunast c.s. of tafunast)

ɣr txamt (f) (<taxamt)   to the tent

ɣr argaz (m) (<argaz)   to the man

(only fem. nouns following /ɣr/ are in the c.s.)

iurgaz (<argaz)   to the man

itfunast (<tafunast)   to the cow

sufus (<afus)   by/with the hand

zy tmazirt (<tamzirt)   from the country

(i) Preposition after which only feminine nouns are in the construct state:

   ɣr   to

(ii)Prepositions after which the nouns are in the construct state:

i   to y   in

s   with (instrumental)

am: like

xf   on

zy   from

d   with

n   of

d:aw   under

ingr ~ ngr   between

(iii)Prepositions after which nouns are NOT in the construct state:

s   to (directional)

qbl	before
bʕd	after
bla	without
ar	until (to)
alː	until (to)

Notes on the preposition "n"　(of)

(i)　n ⟶ -l　before a noun with initial /#l-/ n ⟶ -w　before a noun with initial /#a-/ n ⟶ -y　before a noun with initial /#i-/

　　　n ⟶ -n　elsewhere

(ii)　Nouns with initial /#a-/ drop their /#a-/ in the construct: 'some of' + Noun with /#a-/ i.e. (šan + N)

ša n lḥlib ⟶	ša l lḥlib ⟶	ša lːḥlib	some milk
ša n aksum	ša w ksum	ša wksum	some meat
ša n lgːayz	ša l lgːayz	ša lːgːayz	some kerosene
ša n lbitrun	ša l lbitrun	ša lːbitrun	some kerosene
ša n udi	ša w wudi	ša wːudi	some butter
ša n ifulːusn	ša y fulːusn	ša yfulːusn	some chickens
ša n aɣṛum	ša w ɣṛum	ša wɣṛum	some bread
ša n aslix	ša w slix	ša wslix	some skin
ša n atfl	ša w tfl	ša wtfl	some snow
ša n aɣanim	ša w ɣanim	ša wɣanim	some reeds

However few nouns retain their /#a-/ and follow the rules of construct state of nouns.

ša n atay ————> ša w watay ——> ša w:atay   some tea

ša n awal ————> ša w wawal ——> ša w:awal   some talk

(e) the noun follows the conjunction 'and' /d/ (N$_1$ and N$_2$):

lq:hwa dwatay (<atay)   coffee and tea

argaz t:md̥:ut: (<tamd̥:ut)   the man and the lady

(n.b. /d/ assimilates to a following /t/ in the above example)

tamd̥:ut durgaz (<argaz)   the lady and the man

aɣyul t:funast (tafunast)   the donkey and the cow

Notes on the Noun in Ayt Seghrouchen (A.S.)

1 The nominal affixes listed here for Ayt Ayache are the same for Ayt Seghrouchen.

2 Quite a number of the masculine singular nouns which in Ayt Ayache have initial /#a-/ appear in Ayt Seghrouchen without this /#a-/. The plurals of these A.S. nouns, however, are identical with those of A.A. Moreover, the construct state (see IV.7) of the A.S. nouns has /#u-/ as in A.A.

Examples:

	Singular		Plural
A.A.	A.S.	Construct	A.A. & A.S.
aɣnim	ɣanim	uɣanim	iɣanimn	reed
afus	fus	ufus	ifas:n	hand
aḍaḍ	ḍaḍ	uḍaḍ	iduḍan	finger
afud	fud	ufud	ifad:n	knee

3 This is another phonological difference between the two dialects; In A.S.,

   /-r# + -n#/   /-rn#/
   /-l# + -n#/   /-ln#/
   /-n# + -n#/   /-n:#/ (same as A.A.)

Examples from A.S.:

adrdur	idrdurn	deaf
aɣz:al	iɣz:aln	stick
afr:an	ifʕan:	oven

4   As examples of lexical differences:

A.A.	A.S.
ifd:iwž	aqz:iw	spark
isl:i	azru	stone
ixf	azl:if	head
tazlaft	tziwa	platter
tawrirt	tiš:ut	hill

5   In Ayt Seghrouchen we get /it-/ (m), /suyt/   /ist/ (f), e.g.:

ifgih	itlfgih	learned person
ʕt:i	suytʕt:i	my paternal aunt

6   The same nouns are here listed for A.S.:

Singular	Plural
arba	lwašun	boy
tarbat:	tišir:atin	girl
tamt:ut:	tiʕy:alin	woman
tažmart	tiɣal:in	mare

7   The same nouns are here listed for A.S.:

fus	tfust	small hand
ḍar	ḍːartː	small foot
aɣbalu	taɣbalutː	small spring
ažrtil	tažrtilt	small mat

8   The same nouns here are listed for A.S.:

txant	axam	big tent
taštːabt	aštːab	big room
tmart	mar	big beard
tabḥirt	abḥir	big garden

9   The same nouns are here listed for A.S.:

udi	butter
uzːal	iron
azːar	hair
imndi	grain
ḍːṛa	corn
aɣṛum	bread
aɣi	milk
tadunt	grease, shortening, cooking fat
taḍuft	wool
tisnt	salt
tuža	grass
iɣd	ashes

10   Plural Collective Nouns in A.S.:

aman	water
idam:n	blood
lflus	money
mid:n	people
irdn	wheat
tarwa	offspring. children
tiɣrad	salary
imas:n	plough
timzin	barley
timšrad	scissors
imrɣan	sauce
ifsan	seeds

11   Noun of Unity in A.S.:

/bs/	onions	talbslt	an onion
/:imun/	oranges	talimunt	an orange
/xux/	peaches	talxuxt	a peach
/xiz:u/	carrots	taxiz:ut:	a carrot

Nouns of Unity achieved by the use of /aḥbub/ 'grain' in A.S.:

aḥbub	nr:uz	a grain of rice
aḥbub	nḍ:ra	a kernel of corn
aḥbub	w:aḍil	a grape

12   Such composed nouns in A.S. are:

u (son of)	of (ms)
ult (daughter of)	of (fs)
ulahl	parent, relative (ms)
ultlahl	parent, relative (fs)
bu (owner of)	of (ms)
ayt (owners of)	of (mp)

/bu/ and /m:/ can denote a trade or occupation :

buɣaba	one in charge of a forest
bulhm:am	public bath attendant (m)
m:lhm:am	public bath attendant (f)

13   The construct state of the noun is the same in Ayt Seghrouchen as it is in Ayt Ayache.

V. Particles

This section discusses the Interrogative particles, Conjunctions, Prepositions, the Presentational particles, the Vocative particle and the Conditional particles in Ayt Ayache and Ayt Seghrouchen. Due to the fact that there is quite a difference between the two dialects in this domain of their lexicon, a full discussion of each of the headings mentioned above is given for Ayt Seghrouchen following that of Ayt Ayache.

V. Particles

V.1   Interrogative Particles (Ayt Ayache)

1)   may   ?   Whɔ?

VI. Grammar of the Verb

This section treats the grammar of the verb in Ayt Ayache in an exhaustive manner. It discusses Verb Stems (both basic and derived) as well as Noun Stems (Verbal Nouns). It also discusses Temporal and Modal derivations. Examples and rules for all the derivations are included in this section. A morphophonemic sketch stating forty-four possible changes appears at the end of this section.

Notes on the grammar of the verb in Ayt Seghrouchen, showing differences from Ayt Ayache with ample examples, appear before Appendices A and B. Appendix A is a Verb Sample Appendix for Ayt Ayache. It is followed by a verb list of 450 verbs from that dialect. Appendix B is a Verb Sample Appendix for Ayt Seghrouchen.

VI. Grammar of the Verb

VI.1 Basic and Derived Verb Stems

VI.1.1 Basic Verb Stems

All unaugmented stems (1-77) appearing in position a)

in the Verb Sample Appendix A (pp. 245-261) are basic verb stems (V). As is seen from the examples, some basic verb stems (V) are clearly borrowings from Arabic.

However, these stems are now considered an integral part of

Tamazight verb lexicon, since they conform completely to the derivational and inflectional patterns of the native

stems: e.g., Basic verb stems 45 /zdm/[*] 'collect wood'[]

(Native or Berber) and 44 /xdm/ 'work' (Arabic loan), derive the following nouns of agent : /azd:am/, /izd:amn/, /tazd:amt/,

/tizd:amin/ and /axd:am/, /ixd:amn/, /taxd:amt/, /tixd:amin/

(ms, mp, fs, fp respectively for each set). Temporal and Modal derivations and even native ablaut (see VI.3.1) that apply to

V45 /zdm/ (Berber) apply to V44 /xdm/ (Arabic): e.g., /zdmɣ/

'I collected wood', /xdmɣ/ 'I worked'; /urnzdim/ 'we did not collect wood' and /urnxdim/ 'we did not work'.

VI.1.2 Derived Verb Stems

All augmented verb stems appearing in position a) in

---

[*] A number preceding a form (or a stem) refers to the place of V (Basic Verb Stem) in the Verb Sample Appendix A
pp. 245-261

[] Meanings of V's are glossed as infinitives without "to".

the Verb Sample Appendix are derived stems (Causative SV, Reciprocal MV, Recipro-Causative MSV, and Passive TuV). To support the statement made in VI.1.1 above about the conformity of borrowed stems to native derivational patterns, the following examples are here cited using derivatives of stems /ɣus /,/ʕum / and /kmz/, /frs/:

V			SV	MSV
ɣus	'be burnt' (Berber)		sɣus	m:sɣus
ʕum	'swim' (Arabic loan)		sʕum	m:sʕum
V			MV	TuV
kmz	'scratch' (Berber)		m:kmaz	t:ukmz
frs	'attack' (Arabic loan)		m:fras	t:ufrs

VI.2 Verb Affixes

Verb affixes are either movable or fixed affixes.

VI.2.1 Movable Affixes

A movable affix is one that is now pre-verbal, (i.e.

prefixed to the stem), now post-verbal (i.e. suffixed to the stem). This section discusses two sets of affixes, the Orientational Affixes and the Object Pronominal Affixes.

The Orientational Affixes are: /d/[1] denoting proximity, and /n:/ denoting remoteness. Thus from 71 /d:u/ 'go' we get: /i-d:a/ 'he went', /i-d:a-d/ 'he came', /i-d:a-n:/

'he went there'.[1] (For Comparative Notes, see pp. 216-239)

Included as movable affixes are object pronominal affixes.

The positions of /d/ and /n:/ as well as that of the object

pronominal affixes have been stated in III.3 pp. 44-46

Pronominal Systems under the heading Pronominal Affixes

for Verbs and Prepositions.

VI.2.2   Fixed Affixes

A fixed affix is either a prefix, a suffix, or a discontinuous morpheme.

a)   Prefixes:

1)   Derived Stem Prefixes. This group is prefixed either to a basic verb stem (V) to form a derived verb stem (SV, MV, MSV, TuV) or to a derived verb stem to form its habitual verb stem (SVH, MVH, MSVH, TuVH). VH, the habitual verb stem of unaugmented V, is also derived by the realization of T (see No. 5 below; also see VI.4.2)

These prefixes are here symbolized as

1. S   -   for causative derivation   SV

2. M   -   for reciprocal derivation   MV

3. MS -   for recipro-causative derivation   MSV

4. Tu -   for passive derivation   TuV

5. T   -   for habitual derivation HV, SVH, MVH, MSVH, TuVH

A rare but possible derivation is a TuSV derivation which is a passive derived from a causative stem e.g. 33 /t:usfrḥ/.

2) Temporal and Modal Affixes. This group of Tense and Mode prefixes derives the future and present tenses and their negative and interrogative modes as well as the modes of the past tense.

(i) Temporal Prefixes. There are two temporal prefixes (one for future tense and one for present tense derivations) and an aspectual prefix that derives a progressive or inchoative action.

Future Tense Prefix /ad-/: This prefix derives a future tense from V, SV, MV, MSV or TuV: e.g. ll /ʕum/ 'swim', /ad-ʕum-ɣ / 'I will swim'.

Present Tense Prefix /da-/ ~ /l:a-/.[2] This prefix derives a present tense from VH, SVH, MVH, MSVH, or TuVH: e.g., ll /ʕum/ 'swim' /t:ʕum/ VH, /da-t:ʕum-ɣ / /l:a-t:ʕum-ɣ / 'I swim'.

Progressive or Inchoative Action Prefix /ar-/.[3] This prefix derives a progressive or inchoative action from VH, SVH, MVH, MSVH or TuVH: e.g., ll /ʕum/ 'swim', /t:ʕum/ VH, /ar-t:ʕum-ɣ / 'I started to swim, I began to swim'.

(ii) Modal Prefixes. This section discusses the derivation of the negative and/or interrogative modes of the verb listing the prefixes used in such derivatives with examples illustrating the generated structure.

Interrogative: /id:-/[4] occurs before the temporal prefix /ad-/ to derive an interrogative future construction: e.g., 11 /ʕum/ 'swim' /ad-ʕum-ɣ/ 'I will swim', /id:-ad-ʕum-ɣ / 'Will I swim?'

Interrogative: /is-/[5] occurs before a V, SV, MV, MSV, or TuV inflected for person-number-gender to derive a past tense interrogative construction or before /da-/ (see (i) above) to derive an interrogative present construction:e.g., 11 /ʕum/ 'swim'./ʕum-ɣ / 'I swam'
/is-ʕum-ɣ / 'did I swim?' /t:ʕum/ VH, /da-t:ʕum- ɣ/ 'I swim' /is-da-t:ʕum-ɣ / 'do I swim?'

Negative: /ur-/[6] occurs before an affirmative construction to derive a negative one: e.g. 11/ʕum /'swim'
/t:ʕum/ VH, /ʕum-ɣ/ 'I swam', /ur-ʕum-ɣ/ 'I did not swim'
/da-t:ʕum -ɣ/ 'I swim', /ur-da-t:ʕum-ɣ/ 'I do not swim'.

Negative-Interrogative: A negative construction derived by the prefix /ur-/ may be preceded by the in errogative prefix /is-/ to derive a negative interrogative construction:

e.g.,   /ʕum/ 'swim'   /ur-ʕum-ɣ/   I did not swim.

                           /is-ur-ʕum-ɣ/   Didn't I swim?

        /t:ʕum/ VH   /ur-da-t:ʕum-ɣ/   I do not swim.

                           /is-ur-da-t:ʕum-ɣ/ Don't I swim?

b) __Suffixes__

There are two sets of suffixes, both of which are used for Imperative Derivations.

__Imperative Mode Derivational Suffixes__: The suffixes shown in Table 1 derive (second person) imperative constructions whereas the suffixes in Table 2, derive hortatory (first person) constructions. Notice that person-dual occurs only in the hortatory construction in this dialect. The negative imperative is derived by prefixation of /adur-/ to VH, SVH or MVH and suffixation of -PNG set shown in Table 1.

PNG	Imper. Suffix
2 s m	-∅
2 s f	-∅
2 p m	-at
2 p f	-nt

c) __Person-Number-Gender Affixes__

There is only one set for the inflection for /-PNG-/ in __ALL TENSES__ in Tamazight (See Table 3.).

Ayt Ayache /-PNG-/ Affixes 8

Another morpheme that should be mentioned here is the Participle Morpheme /-n/. Since the realization of -PNG- effects a change in the stem of certain verb classes in the past tense, therefore the participle rule must be applied after the realization of the features for $P_3N_sG_m$ and the Modal prefix to allow for the occurrence of the ablaut. (See VI.3.1)

The suffix /-n/ is common to the three participles: Present, Past and Future participles

VI.3   Classification of Verb Stems[9]

This section discusses the grouping of unaugmented verb stem into two _types_, four _classes_ and nine _sub-classes_ as is done in the Sample Appendix.

The underlying structure of the verb stem in Tamazight is $\|ABCD\|$. Here $\|A\|$ represents the first radical, $\|B\|$ represents the second radical and so forth. If $\|B\|$, for example, is a [+tense] radical (e.g., t:, d:, m:, etc.), it is referred to as $\|B:\|$ and to the stem as $\|AB:CD\|$; if it is a vowel, it is referred to as $\|V\|$ and to the stem as $\|AVCD\|$.

The classification of Tamzzight verb stems is based primarily on an ablaut that occurs in the past tense for particular classes (see VI.3.1) and secondarily on the derivational processes of derived verb stems (Causative, Reciprocal and Passive verb stems and their Habitual stems; see VI.4.   The sub-classification is based on several factors shown in VI.3.2.

Tamazight verb stems may then be classified into two types: _Ablauted and Non-Ablauted_. The ablauted type is characterized by having all its members with third radical $\|C\|$ = $\|\emptyset\|$ in their underlying structures whereas the unablauted type does not have a $\|\emptyset\|$ as third radical (See VI. 3.1) The general structure of the unablauted type is

$\|AB(C)(D)\|$ whereas that of the ablauted type is $\|(A)B(:)\emptyset(D)\|$

In more detail the structure of the ablauted type is

symbolized as $\|O\|$ accounts for the structure of such ablauted

stems as 66 /g/ 'be, do', 68 /g̣:/ 'knead', 69 /k:/ 'pass' and

57 /f:r/ 'hide' with the underlying structures /Og∅/, /Og̣:∅/,

VI.3.1   The Different Ablauts

Ablaut occurs (for some verb classes) only in the affirmative and/or negative past. The ablaut of the interrogative past follows that of the affirmative past; the negative-interrogative ablaut is the same as the negative past. For this reason we will refer only to affirmative and negative past and mark them as [-Negative] and [+ Negative]: e.g.,

70 /ls/ 'get dressed': /i-lsa/ 'he got dressed', /is-ilsa/

'did he get dressed?', /ur-i-lsi/ 'he did not get dressed', /isur-ilsi/ 'didn't he get dressed?'.

The following discussion is meant to show the kinds of ablauts that occur in Tamazight and the rules governing their occurrence.

VI.3.1.1   Zero Ablaut /∅/

We must distinguish between zero and no ablaut. The latter is a characteristic of such verb stems as 1 - 25 in the Appendix that do not have an underlying structure with ‖C‖ = ‖∅‖ . Zero ablaut, /∅/, is characteristic of the others

(25 - 77 with ‖C‖ = ‖∅‖): e.g., 9 /sal/ 'ask' has no ablaut as in /sal-γ/ 'I asked', /ur-sal-γ/ 'I did not ask';
whereas 70 /ls/ (underlying form /ls∅/) 'get dressed' is ablauted and thus gives: /lsi-γ/ 'I got dressed' and /ur-lsi-γ/ 'I did not get dressed'.

The following examples of verb stems, both in their underlying and surface structures, show the occurrence of /∅/ as the ‖C‖ radical of certain sub-classes to which this grammar refers as ablauted. Also included in the examples are unablauted verb stems whose ‖C‖ radicals are not /∅/.

	Underlying Structure ABCD	Surface Structure
3	fa	fa	'yawn'
6	šk:a	šk:a	'doubt'
1	dawa	dawa	'cure'
9	sal	sal	'ask'
18	xṭar	xṭar	'choose'
21	ḥudr	ḥudr	'bend, be low'
33	fr∅ḥ	frḥ	'be happy'
34	fs:∅r	fs:r	'explain'

162

52	amǿẓ	amẓ	'take'
57	Of:ǿr	f:r	'hide'
62	afǿ	af	'find'
63	aš:ǿk	aš:k	'be lost'
64	arǿr	rar	'return'
66	Ogǿ	g	'be, do'
70	lsǿ	ls	'get dressed'
71	Od:ǿu	d:u	'go'
77	irǿi	iri	'want'

Thus the major distinction is whether the underlying structure of the stem has its ‖C‖ radical as ‖ǿ‖ (e.g., 26-77 in the Verb Appendix) or not (e.g., 1-25 in the Verb Appendix). Based on this distinction, Tamazight verb stems are classified into two types:

    A - Unablauted   (1-25 in Verb Appendix)

    B - Ablauted   (26-77 in Verb Appendix)

VI.3.1.2 [ǿ:i/a] Ablaut

The most distinctive ablaut is the change of /ǿ/ referred to in VI.3.1.1 above to /i/ in the $Past_{[-Negative]}$ for $P_1N_sG_{m&f}$, $P_2N_sG_{m&f}$ and to /a/ in the $Past_{[-Negative]}$ for PNG other than these mentioned here.

Using this feature, the Ablauted Type (26-77) is classified into two classes:

$$- \quad [\emptyset{:}i/a] \quad +$$

/frØḥ/	/af/
/fs:Ør/	/aš:Øk/
/amØz/	/arØr/
/Of:Ør/	/lsØ/

ilsa	'he got dressed'
tlsa	'she got dressed'

Examples of $[- \emptyset{:}i/a]$ (which will be referred to as $[\emptyset{:}0]$, i.e. zero: null ablaut):

33   frḥ (< frØḥ)

frḥɣ	'I was happy'
tfrḥd	'you were happy'
ifrḥ	'he was happy'
tfrḥ	'she was happy'

VI.3.1.3   Predictable Ablauts

Two other predictable ablauts are: [∅:i] ablaut and [a:u] ablaut.

VI.3.1.3-a   [∅:i] Ablaut

This is a change of /∅/ to /i/ in the past for all PNG. This is, of course, a general ablaut since it occurs with all ablauted stems: e.g., 70 /ls/ (</ls∅/): /lsiɣ/ 'I got dressed', /urlsiɣ/ 'I did not get dressed', /ilsa/ 'he got dressed', /urilsi/ 'he did not get dressed'; 33 /frḥ/: /frḥɣ/ 'I was happy', /urfriḥɣ/ 'I was not happy', /ifrḥ/ 'he was happy', /urifriḥ/ 'he was not happy'.

VI.3.1.3-b   [a:u] Ablaut

This is a change of /a/ to /u/ (for ablauted stems). Thus any stem with ‖A‖ = /a/ and ‖C‖ = /∅/ undergoes this change of /a/ ——→ /u/ in the Past [±Neg]. This accounts for the fact that such stems as 12 /an:ay/ 'see' and 13 /aẓum/ 'fast' are classified as unablauted since their ‖C‖ is not /∅/ : e.g., 62 /af/ (/af∅/) 'find':   /ufiɣ/ 'I found', /urufiɣ/ 'I didn't find', /yufa/ 'he found', /uryufi/ 'he did not find'.

VI.3.1.4   Metathesis

The role of metathesis is important in stating the structure of certain sub-classes of verbs in Tamazight.

A look at 9 /sal/ 'ask' and 64 /rar/ 'return' shows that they have identical surface structures. However, their underlying structures are different: 9 /sal/ has /sal/
as underlying structure whereas the underlying struc ure of 64 /rar/ is /arØr/.

A verb base (i.e. the underlying structure of the verb stem) may be marked for [+Metathesis] which affects its ‖AB‖ and/or ‖ØD‖ radicals: e.g., /arØr/———→/rarØ/;
/as:Øk/———→/as:kØ/; or its ‖B"Ø‖ radicals: e.g., /grØ/———→/gØr/. Stems marked for double metathesis
(i.e. the /arØr/———→/rarØ/structure) are rare in this dialect. Lexicons and dictionaries of Tamazight list three to five verbs with this particular structure. Stems of the /as:Øk/———→/as:kØ/ and the /grØ/———→/gØr/ structures are rare also.

VI.3.1.5   Predictable Changes in the Sub-class /d:u/ - /iri/

This sub-class is characterized by having ‖D‖ = ‖V‖ where ‖V‖ is either /u/ or /i/ but not /a/. A predictable change occurs with the realization of person-number-gender in the Past$_{[\pm Negative]}$ to the members of this sub-class whose structure (whether /bdu/, /d:u/, /ᶜd:u/, or /iri/). This is ‖(A)BØV‖ ——→ ‖(A)BØ‖ / ___ V = $\left\{ \begin{matrix} u \\ i \end{matrix} \right\}$.

In addition another rule that is necessary for any stem with $\|A\| = /\#i\text{-}/$ whether ablauted or not (e.e. 77 or 15) is one that deletes initial $/\#i\text{-}/$ before the realization of /-PNG-/ in the Past$_{[\pm\text{Negative}]}$. It will thus operate on unablauted 15 /iẓil/ 'be nice' as well as on ablauted 77 /iri/ 'want'.

Examples of the above-mentioned changes are: /šmu/ (< /šmØu/) 'smoke': /šmiɣ/ 'I smoked', /uršmiɣ/ 'I did not smoke', /išma/ 'he smoked', /urišmi/ 'he did not smoke' and 77 /iri/ (< /irØi/) 'want': /riɣ/ 'I wanted', /ur:iɣ/ 'I did not want', /ira/ 'he wanted/, /uriri/ 'he did not want'. (See full paradigms in Tables 5 and 6.)

VI.3.2   Classes and Sub-classes of the Two Types of Tamazight Verb Stems

This section discusses the bases of the classification of Tamazight verb stems into two types, four classes and nine sub-classes.

VI.3.2.1   Ablauted and Unablauted Types

Based on the occurrence or non-occurrence of a $\|\emptyset\|$ as the $\|C\|$ radical of their underlying structures, Tamazight verb stems are classified into two types:

A Ablauted   (with $\|C\| = \|\emptyset\|$ in the underlying structure)

B Unablauted   (with no $\|\emptyset\|$ in the

This information is shown here in the following figure:

$$- [\|C\| = \|\emptyset\|] +$$

A Unablauted   B Ablauted

VI.3.2.2   Classes of the Ablauted Type

Based on the change $[\emptyset:i/a]$ referred to in VI.3.1.2

ablauted stems (26-77) are classified into two classes:

B-i and B-ii. B-i (26-61) is referred to as $[-\emptyset:i/a]$

(or $[\emptyset:0]$); B-ii (62-77) is referred to as $[+\emptyset:i/a]$. This is illustrated in the following figure:

$$- [\emptyset:i/a] +$$

B-i $\left\{ \begin{array}{c} \|AB(:)\emptyset D\| \\ \|aB\emptyset D\| \\ \|OB:\emptyset D\| \end{array} \right\}$ B-ii $\left\{ \begin{array}{c} \underset{[\pm Met]}{\|aB} \underset{[\pm Met]}{\emptyset(D)\|} \\ \|(A)B(:) \underset{[\pm Met]}{\emptyset\|} \\ \|A(:)B(:)\emptyset \left\{ \begin{array}{c} i \\ u \end{array} \right\} \| \end{array} \right\}$

Classes of the Ablauted Type

VI.3.2.3   Classes of the Unablauted Type

The members of the unablauted type do not undergo any change with the realization of person-number-gender in the past. However, classification into two classes: A-i and A-ii is necessary for the statement of particular derivations. All members of the unablauted type are characterized by a structure that does not have ‖C‖ as ‖∅‖ and that necessarily has ‖V‖ as either radical ‖B‖, ‖C‖ or ‖D‖. The position of ‖V‖ is the basis of the classification of unablauted stems into A-i and A-ii. All members of the A-ii class have the structure ‖AVCD‖ (referred to as /haḍr, d:irz, ḥudr/).

Based on whether the stem has ‖B‖ = ‖V‖ followed by ‖CD‖, the two classes of the unablauted type are shown in the following figure:

VI.3.2.4   Sub-classification of Tamazight Verb Stems

This section groups together the information stated in VI.3.2.1 to VI.3.2.3 above showing types A and their four classes: A-i, A-ii and B-i, B-ii, their nine sub-classes: A-i (1-3), B-i (1-3) and B-ii (1-3) as well as the bases of this classification.

VI.3.3   Illustrative Examples of Conjugation of Verbs Representing the Various Sub-Classes of Tamazight Verb Stems

In this section fourteen verb stems representing the various structures of the sub-classes of verb stems discussed

above are used to exemplify the Surface Structure (SS) forms resulting from the realization of person-number-gender (PNG)

in the Past$_{[\underline{+}\text{Negative}]}$. Some verbs are inflected for all persons-numbers- and genders. Ohters with the same structure and/or belonging to the same category of ablaut are inflected only for P_1N_s and $P_3N_sG_f$. All forms in Tables 4,5, and 6 appear in their surface structure (SS), i.e. after the operation of the morphophonemic rules.   Meanings are only listed for the Affirmative Past.

VI.4   Derivational Processes [10]

VI.4.1   Introduction

Derivations are of two kinds: Stem Derivations and Temporal/Modal Derivations. Derived Stems are either Verb Stems or Noun Stems. The Derived Verb Stems include the Causative SV, the Reciprocal MV, the Recipro-Causative MSV, and the Passive TuV as well as their Habitual Stems (SVH, MVH,MSVH,TuVH respectively) and the habitual VH of the unaugmented Verb Stem V. Derived Noun Stems include the stems of such nouns as the ones appearing in postiions c), d) and e) in the Sample Appendix(Noun of Action, Agent, Instrument, Place or Occupation also see the Grammar of the Noun.) The following are the main Temporal and Modal derivations of the unaugmented verb stem V and its habitual stem VH: Aorist (Aor.), Affirmative Past (Aff. Past), Negative Past (Neg. Past), Interrogative Past (Interr. Past), Negative-Interrogative Past (Neg-Interr. Past),Affirmative Future (Aff. Fut.), Negative Future (Neg. Fut.), Interrogative Future (Interr. Fut.), Affirmative Present (Aff. Pres.), Negative Present (Neg. Pres.), Interrogative Present (Interr, Pres.), Negative-Interrogative Present (Neg-Interr. Pres.), Imperative (Imp.), Negative Imperative (Neg. Imp.), Past Participle (Past Part.), Present Participle (Pres. Part.), and Future Participle (Fut. Part.). Most of the above-mentioned temporal and

174

modal structures generated from V and its VH may also be generated from SV, MV, MSV and their habitual stems SVH,MVH,and MSVH. Fewer structures are generated from TuV and its habitual stem TuVH.

The purpose of this chapter is to characterize how a native speaker of Tamazight can generate all the forms referred to here. This is represented in a series of discussions.
Section VI.4.2 discusses the derivation of VH i.e.
the habitual of the unaugmented stem   . Sections VI.4.3
VI.4.4 and VI.4.5 discuss the derivations of the Causative, Reciprocal and Passive stems respectively. The discussion of the derivation of the habitual of a particular derived stem is included with it in the same section: e.g. Section VI.4. discusses SV and SVH derivations. Section VI.4.6 is an informal discussion of derived noun stems and nouns.
Section VL4.7 shows the derivations of the different tenses and their modes as well as the participles with examples shown in Tables 7-29. Rules are formulated for each temporal and modal derivation and a summary of the rules appears in VI.4.7.8.

Throughout Section VL4 DSR refers to a deep structure rule which generates a form with its morpheme boundary /-/
whereas SSR refers to a surface structure rule that deletes /-/ and realizes other changes stated for the generated structure. SSR's of a particular derivation follow DSR's of the same derivation except for general SSR's which are grouped in Section VI.5.

VI.4.2   Derivation of the Habitual VH of the Unaugmented Stem

VH is the stem used in the derivation of the present tense with its different modes, the progressive and inchoative actions, the negative and the energetic imperatives, and the present and future participles. The VH is derived from unaugmented V; theoretically each V has a VH.

Prefix /t:-/ is used to derive the habitual stem of any V of type A-i (1-73)[*]   /t:___aV-/ derives habitual stems from V's of the type A-ii. (74-115). /-aV-/[] is an alpha rule that adds a vowel that is identical to the stem vowel (see examples for A-ii below).

		V		VH
A-i	3	fa	'yawn'	t:fa
	37	sal	'ask'	t:sal
	46	ʕum	'swim'	t:ʕum
	72	zwiɣ	'be red'	t:zwiɣ

---

[*]   Numerals refer to number of verb stem in Verb List at the end of this chapter. (pp. 262-282)

[]   For a more elaborate description of the habitual derivational processes see Abdel-Massih, Ernest, Tamazight Verb Structure:
A Generative Approach, Indiana University: Bloomington, Indiana, 1971.

A-ii   77   ḥaḍr   'be present'   t:ḥaḍar

        74   d:irz   'step back'   t:diriz

        83   ḥudr   'bend'   t:ḥudur

B.i.1   To derive the habitual of V of type B.i.1. (116-315)

observe the following:

a)   All verbs of the /fs:r/ (‖ AB:∅D‖) sub-group derive their habitual stems by prefix /t:-/ and ‖ ∅ ‖⟶/-a-/, i.e.

162 fs:r   'to explain' ⟶ t:fs:ar   (VH)

b)   All V's marked native (i.e. not Arabic) derive their VH's thus: ‖ Ḅ‖ ⟶ ‖B:‖ e.g.

225 rẓm   'to open' ⟶   rẓ:m   (VH)

c)   V's marked 'Arabic loan' derive their VH's by prefix /t:-/ and ‖-∅-‖⟶/a-/ if ‖B‖ is not /r/ nor /d, t, s, z, s, or z/, e.g.

126 bˤd   'be far' ⟶ t:bˤad   (VH)

144 fhm   'understand' ⟶ t:fham   (VH)

d)   If ‖B‖ is /r/ we may get VH's as variants of both forms mentioned in b) and c) above, e.g.

149 frḥ   'be happy' ⟶ fr:ḥ

                              t:fraḥ   (VH)

e)   If ‖B‖ is /d, t, s, z, s or z/ VH is formed as in

b) above.

271 xdm 'work ⟶   xd:m   (VH)

B.i.2   To derive VH's of B.i.2   (316-337) and B.i.3   (338-360) the prefix /t:-/ is used: e.g.,

325   amẓ   'take'   ⟶   t:amẓ   (VH)

340   f:r   'hide'   ⟶   t:f:r   (VH)

/t:___a#/ is the derivational affix of members of B.ii.1 (361-370), e.g.

362   af   'find'   ⟶   t:afa (VH)

361   adž   'let'   ⟶   t:adža (VH)

369   rar   'return, give back'   t:rara (VH)

As for B.ii.2. (371-397), /t:___a#/ derives a VH of the structures /0g∅/ ⟶ g, bd:∅ ⟶ bd: whereas 1s∅ ⟶ 1s derives the VH as 1s:a and g∅r ⟶ gr∅ ⟶ gr derives the VH as g:ar. This means that /∅/ ⟶ /a/ and the radical preceding /∅/ ⟶ [+tense], e.g.

	V		VH
377	g̣:	'knead'	t:g̣:a
371	bd:	'stand up'	t:bd:a
388	1s	'get dressed'	1s:a
376	gr	'throw away'	g:ar

B.ii.3 (398-450) derive their VH's mainly by the prefix /t:-/. Stems with ‖B‖ as /n/ derive their VH's by ‖B‖ ⟶ ‖B:‖. Stems with ‖B‖ as /m/ derive their VH's by variants of both processes mentioned above, e.g.

401   dʕu   'pray for'   ⟶   t:dʕu   (VH)

400   bnu   'build'   ⟶   bn:u   (VH)

412   ḥmu   'be hot weather' ⟶ { thmu / ḥm:u }   (VH)

VI.4.3   Causative Stem Derivation

The Verb Appendix shows, where the semantic features of V permit, two causative stems appearing in positions a) and b). The stem in position a) is referred to as SV; i.e. causative stem and the one in position b) is referred to as SVH, i.e. habitual of the causative stem. SV is used for past and future tense derivations, for imperative and past participle derivations. SVH is used for present tense, negative imperative and present and future participle derivations.
In general SV corresponds to V (in derivational power) whereas SVH corresponds to VH.

SVH is derived from SV by an infix (/-V-/), e.g.

	V			SV	SVH
3	fa	'yawn'		sfa	sfa
83	ḥudr	'bend'		sḥudr	sḥudur
173	ḥml	'flood'		s:ḥml	s:hmal
426	ṣfu	'be clean'		s:ḟu	s:ḟu

VI.4.4   Reciprocal Verb Stem Derivation

The Verb Appendix shows, where the semantic features of V permit, two reciprocal stems in positions a) and b).
The stem in position a) is referred to as MV, i.e. Reciprocal Verb Stem; whereas the stem-in position b) is referred to as 179

MVH, i.e. habitual of the reciprocal stem. Stems with reciprocal and causative connotation (Recipro-Causative) appear partly in the Causative and partly in the Reciprocal columns and are referred to as: a) MSV, b) MSVH. This section states the derivation of Recip. and Recipro-Caus. stems.
This is done because some V's derive Recipro-Causative stems in spite of the fact that the semantic features of V do not permit the derivation of a causative stem. Such cases are not numerous; e.g. 383 /nɣ/ 'kill' does not derive a causative, however, it derives recipro-causative: MSV /msnɣa/ and MSVH /t:msnɣa/. Some V's derive variants, i.e. reciprocals and recipro-causatives: e.g.

	V		SV	SV	MV
47	bd:l	'change'	sbd:l		mbd:al
			sbd:al		t:mbd:al
			msbd:al
			t:msbd:al

where the MV means 'to exchange or change with one another' and the MSV means 'to cause one another to exchange. MV and MVH correspond to V as far as Temporal and Modal derivations are concerned, whereas MVH and MSVH correspond to VH.

MV* is derived from V by the reciprocal prefix $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} /m-/ \\ /m:-/ \end{array} \right\}$,

* For a more elaborate description of the phonological rules governing the shape of the causative and/or reciprocal prefix, see Abdel-Massih, Ernest, _Tamazight Verb Structure: A Generative Approach_, Indiana University: Bloomington, Indiana, 1971.

MSV is derived by prefixing $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} /\text{-ms-}/ \\ /\text{-m:s-}/ \end{array} \right\}$ to V. A vowel infix is added if the stem has a consonant cluster as its final two radicals. MVH and MSVH are derived from MV and MSV respectively by prefix /t:-/: e.g.

		V	MV/MSV	MVH/MSVH
37	sal	'ask'	m:sal	t:msal
46	ʕum	'swim'	m:sʕum	t:m:sʕum
95	ṭalb	'demand'	mṭalab	t:mṭalab
144	fhm	'understand'	msfham	t:msfham

VI.4.5 Passive Verb Stem Derivation

The Verb Appendix shows two passives: TuV, i.e. passive stem appearing in position a) and TuVH, i.e. the habitual of the passive stem appearing in position b). TuV is derived from V. Stems 149 and 152 in Appendix derive their passives (TuSV) from SV

TuV is the stem that derives past and future tenses and their modes; TuVH is the stem that derives the present tense and its modes. The derivation of TuV from V (most common passive) or SV (very rare passive) is achieved by the passive derivational prefix /t:u-/ and the derivation of TuVH from TuV by an optional infix (/-V-/)[*], e.g.

VI.4.6   Derived Noun Stems and Nouns

VI.4.6.1   Introduction

It was stated before that noun stems would be discussed though not fully. This section attempts to show the relation between nouns of action, of agent and other derived nouns and their V's in terms of derivations. The statements are very simple. For more elaborate discussion see the Grammar of the Noun

VI.4.6.2   Noun Stem Derivation

Most noun stems are derived from V's; however, few nouns of action may be derived from SV, MV or MSV. Many noun stems are identical with their V's (SV's, MV's or MSV's): e.g.

	V		N-act.	N-agt (m,s)[*]
84	kašf	'foretell'	a-kašf-	am-kašf-

	V		SV	N-act
7	ḥn:a	'be peaceful'	sḥn:a	a-sḥn:a-

[*] Throughout this section, Noun Stems will be underlined.

182

	V		MV	N-act
81	ḥasb	'count'	mḥasab	a-mḥasab-

In many cases the stem of the noun of action is derived from V by change of ‖∅‖ to /-a-/ and the noun of agent stem is derived from that of N-act by change of ‖B‖ ⟶ ‖B:‖ ([-tense] ⟶ [+tense]). This is characteristic of stems with underlying structure ‖AB∅D‖ : e.g.

	V		N-act	N-agt (m,s)
167	hdm	'demolish'	a-hdam-	a-hd:am-

Most V's with underlying structures ‖AB:∅D‖ derive their N-agt stems by change of ‖∅‖⟶/a-/. This particular sub-class has (in most cases) identical V's and N-act stems: e.g.

	V		N-act	N-agt (m,s)
123	bš:r	'give good news'	a-bš:r-	a-bš:ar-

The sub-class of verb stems with the underlying structure ‖OB:∅D‖ derives its N-act stems by change ‖∅‖ ⟶ /-u-/ and of ‖B:‖ ⟶ ‖B‖ ([+tense] ⟶ [-tense]). This is characteristic of the sub-class with ‖A‖ = ‖O‖ (‖O‖⟶/u-/), e.g.

	V		N-act
338	b:y	'cut'	u-buy-
341	f:ɣ	'go out'	u-fuɣ-

The sub-class of verb stems with the underlying structure ‖AB∅‖ derives stems of N-act and N-agt by change of ‖∅‖ ⟶ ‖V‖ .

183

This sub-class of verbs is characterized by deriving most of its N-acts by the affix /m____t/. If ‖V‖ is /-i-/ then it ———→/-iw-/.

		V		N-act	N-agt (m,s)
379	ks	'tend sheep'		ta-ks:a-	am-ksa-
380	ls	'dress'		m-lsiw-t
381	ns	'spend the night'		m-nsiw-t
383	rɣ	'warm oneself'		m-rɣiw-t
385	sɣ	'buy'		m-sɣiw-t
392	zd	'weave'		m-zdiw-t	am-zda-

The sub-class of verbs with the underlying structure ‖ABÓV‖ shows a number of N-act and N-agt which (together with their stems) are derived from V on the pattern of a corresponding Arabic noun. Mention should be made of the fact that when a noun is derived (whether of this sub-class or any other subclass) on an Arabic noun pattern, the shape of the Berber noun is not easily predictable. Examples given below show noun stems derived from the different classes of V stems that follow an Arabic pattern:

		V		N-act
81	ḥasb	'count'		l-ḥsab-
95	ṭalb	'demand'		ṭ:alab (l-ṭalab-)
422	rǧu	'hope'		r:ǧa (l-rǧa-)
427	ṣḥu	'be healthy'		ṣ:aḥt (l-ṣaḥt-)

| 440 | ʕfu | 'forgive' | l-ʕfu- |
| 265 | wq:r | 'respect' | l-uq:r- |

	V		N-agt (m,s)

179	ḥšm	'govern'	l-ḥak:m-
264	wk:l	'appoint as representative'	l-ušil-

VI.4.7   Temporal and Modal Derivation

VI.4.7.1   Introduction

This section discusses the derivation of the different tenses and modes of the verb in Tamazight. The discussion includes the following derivations from unaugmented V: the imperative, the Aorist, the past tense with its different modes: affirmative, interrogative, negative and negative-interrogative; the future tense with its two modes: affirmative and interrogative - "Will" type as well as the derivation of the past participle and a variant of the future participle. From VH the following derivations are discussed: energetic imperative, negative imperative, interrogative future - Q type, negative future, the present tense with its different modes: affirmative, interrogative, negative and negative-interrogative, as well as the present and future participles.

The derivations referred to above are all achieved by using V and VH. Moreover, SV, MV or MSV can generate most of the structures that a V does and SVH, MVH or MSVH can generate most of the structures that a VH does. Fewer structures are generated from the passive stem TuV and its habitual TuVH.

VI.4.7.2   Derivation of Imperative Structures

Tamazight has different imperative structures that will be referred to as 2-a, 2-b and 1-a, 1-b, 1-c.
Structures 2-a and 2-b are second person imperatives where 2-b is the negative imperative. 1-a, 1-b and 1-c are hortatory or cohortative constructions expressing an exhortation or suggestion for first person. The negative imperative and the energetic imperative are derived from
VH. The other imperative structures are derived from V.
/-PNG/[*] of the imperatives are all suffixes (see Tables 1 and 2).

Imperative 2-a is derived simply by affixation of /-PNG/ (suffixes) shown in Table 1 to either V to derive second person imperative or to VH to derive the energetic imperative which for   /ʕum/ 'swim' may be translated as either 'get in the habit of swimming' or 'do swim'. Imperative 2-b is derived by prefixation of the negative imperative derivational prefix /adur-/ to VH and the realization of imperative /-PNG$_2$/ suffixes referred to above. Imperative 1-a is derived by the suffixation of /-PNG$_1$/ set shown in Table 2.   Imperatives 1-b and 1-c differ from 1-a both in meaning and in structure.
All the three structures mean 'let us...', except that 1-b and 1-c have the added feature [+movement]. The difference

---

[*]   This study refers to the suffixed PNG of the imperative as /-PNG/ or /-PNG$_{\{1,2\}}$/ where /-PNG$_2$/ means second person suffixes and /-PNG$_1$/ is hortatory suffixes. It will also refer to the affixed PNG of the different tenses as /-PNG-/.

in structure lies in the fact that /-PNG$_1$/ are added to the V to derive 1-a, whereas in deriving 1-b they are added to the V   /k:r/ 'get up' and in 1-c /-PNG$_1$/ are added to /yal:ah/ a particle meaning 'let us'.

$$\left\{ \begin{array}{ll} /k:r/ & + \quad /-PNG_1/ \\ /yal:ah/ & + \quad /-PNG_1/ \end{array} \right\}$$ are both followed by the desired V + /-PNG-/ + future prefix /ad-/:   e.g. /ʕum-aɣ /

'let us (both) swim', /k:r-a   ad-n-ʕum/ 'let us (both) go and swim'[/ad-n-ʕum/ (DS) ——→/an-ʕum/ (SS)]. Another structural difference is that 1-a does not distinguish between G_m and G_f in P_d whereas 1-b and 1-c do.

Imperative structures with the movable affixes /-d-/

of proximity, /-n:-/ of remoteness and the pronominal

affixes occur with the affix post-Imperative$_{[-Negative]}$

and in the order: Imper$_{[-Negative]}$+ (I.Obj.) + (D.Obj.) +

(orientational affix) or pre-Imperative$_{[+Negative]}$ and in the order: Neg, Imper. Prefix + (I.Obj.) + (D.Obj.) +

(orientational affix) + Imperative.

Causative and Reciprocal Imperatives are derived in the same way the imperatives of a V and its VH are derived;

Causative and reciprocal imperative structures with the movable affixes are also derived in the same way referred to in the previous paragraph. Not all imperative constructions with the movable affixes occur with the derived verb

stems (Caus. and Recip.).

VI.4.7.3   Derivation of the Past Tense and Its Different Modes

The past tense is derived from V by the realization of /-PNG-/ shown in Table 3. As stated before, /-PNG-/affixes are the same no matter what the temporal (past, present, future) structure is. Its different modes are derived by the modal prefixes discussed in VI.2.2 above. The realization of /-PNG-/ in the past effects a change in the verb stem of certain classes. This was discussed in VL.3 and was referred to as ablaut (Abl) and to the stems as ablauted stems.

Rules for the Derivation of the Different Modes of the Past Tense: (from V)

Past-DSR$_1$ Affirm. Past $\longrightarrow$ V + /-PNG-/ + (Abl)

Past-DSR$_2$ Interrog. Past $\longrightarrow$ /is-/ + Affirm. Past

Past-DSR$_3$ Neg. Past $\longrightarrow$ /ur-/ + V + /-PNG-/ + (Abl)

Past-DSR$_4$ Neg-Interrog. Past $\longrightarrow$ /is-/ + Neg. Past

Past-DSR$_5$ Movable Affix $\longrightarrow$

Examples of the products of the above rules are shown in Tables 14-17. All forms have as subject /-P$_3$N$_s$G$_m$-/ (prefix /i-/). Blank boxes indicate that the form does not occur.

VI.4.7.4 _Derivation of the Future Tense and Its Different Modes_

The structures generated for the future tense are: affirmative future, interrogative future (Will type), negative future and interrogative future (Q type).

Rules for the Generation of the Different Future Modes

(from V and VH)

Fut-DSR$_1$	Affirm-Fut $\longrightarrow$ /ad-/ + V + /-PNG-/
Fut-DSR$_2$	Interr-Fut$_{will}$ $\longrightarrow$ /id:-/ + Affirmative Future

Fut-DSR$_4$	Interr. Fut$_Q$ $\longrightarrow$ QW + VH + /-PNG-/
Fut-DSR$_5$	Movable Affixes $\longrightarrow$ Pre-Verbal

Most of the above-mentioned structures may be derived for the causative, reciprocal, recipro-causative and passive where SV, MV, MSV, amd TuV are used in place of V; and SVH, MVH, MSVH, and TuVH are used in place of VH.

Examples of the results of the above rules are shown in Tables 18-21. All forms are generated with -P$_3$N$_s$G$_m$- (Prefix /-i/). Blank boxes indicate that the form does not occur.

VI.4.7.6   Derivation of the Aorist

The aorist is a dependent tense that does not occur as sentence initial. It is formed from V (SV or MV) simply by the realization of /-PNG-/.

Rules for the Generation of the Aorist (from V):

Aor-DSR$_1$ Aorist $\longrightarrow$ V + /-PNG-/

Aor-DSR$_2$ Movable Affixes $\longrightarrow$ Post-Verbal

Aorist forms are identical with past tense forms of unablauted stems but differ from those of the ablauted stems by the ablaut.

Aorists generated by the above rules are shown in Table 26 for SS forms. All forms are generated with -P$_3$N$_s$G$_m$- (prefix /i-/).

VI.4.7.7 Derivation of the Participles

This section discusses the derivation of past, present, and future participles both affirmative and negative.

The past participle is formed by suffixation of the participle suffix /-n/ to a derived past in $-P_3N_sG_m-$. Prefixation of /ur-/ gives the negative participle. Either of these two particles is used with subjects of any number or gender. A plural past participle formed by suffixation of /-in/ to past in $-P_3N_pG_m-$ is used only with plural (m,f) subjects.

The present participle is formed by suffixation of the participle suffix /-n/ to a derived present structure in $-P_3N_sG_m-$. Prefixation of /ur-/ gives its negative participle.

The future participle is derived by suffixation of the participle suffix /-n/ to a VH after the realization of $-P_3N_sG_m-$. Prefixation of /ur-/ gives its negative participle. A variant affirmative future participle (which has no negative) may be derived by suffixation of the particle suffix /-n/ to a derived aorist in $-P_3N_sG_m-$.

Rules for the Generation of the Participles

Part-DSR$_1$ (Neg) Past Part. $\longrightarrow$ (/ur-/) + Past$[_{-P_3N_sG_m-}]+$/-n/

Part-DSR$_2$ Plural Past Part. $\longrightarrow$ Past$_{[-P_3N_pG_m-]}$ + /-n/

Part-DSR$_3$ (Neg) Fut.Part. $\longrightarrow$ (/ur-/) + Pres$[_{-P_3N_sG_m-}]+$ /-n/

Part-DSR$_4$ (Neg) Fut.Part. $\longrightarrow$ (/ur-/) + VH$_{[-P_3N_sG_m-]}+$ /-n/

Part-DSR$_5$ Variant Fut. Part. $\longrightarrow$ Aor$_{[-P_3N_sG_m-]}$ + /-n/

Part-DSR$_6$ Movable Affix $\longrightarrow$ Pre-Participle

Participles derived by the above rules for the V 25 /ʕawn/ are shown in Tables 27-29 for SS forms.

All participles occur in structures using the relative pronouns /n:a/ 'who, that' or /aɣra/ 'who will, that will': e.g., /n:a yʕawn:/ means 'who helped', /n:a dayt:ʕawan:/ means 'who is helping' and /aɣra yt:ʕawan:/ means 'who will help'.

VI.5 Morphophonemic Sketch

VI.5.1 Introduction

The morphophonemic changes which occur in the dialect under consideration, mainly in verb derivations, may be divided into six classes: voicing assimilation, reduction, hiatus, and change of vowel to glide: $(V \longrightarrow G)$.

This section states the morphophonemic changes in phonemic symbols[*] (in VL5.2) and then (in VL5.3) gives examples of these changes using verbs from the Verb List and the end of this chapter. Phonemic symbols are written between slashes / /; hyphen /-/ represents morpheme boundary; /#/ word boundary.

VI.5.2 General Rules of Tamazight Verb Morphophonemics [12]

The following rules apply to /-PNG-/ inflection and combination of verb with temporal and modal prefixes. These rules are referred to as General Surface Structure Rules (Gen-SSR's) since they affect the shape of any verbal derivation in contexts specified in the examples given in VI.5.3.

[*] For a more elaborate description of verb morphophonemics see Abdel-Massih, Ernest, _Tamazight Verb Structure: A Generative Approach_, Indiana University Press: Bloomington, Indiana, 1971.

Notes on the Verb in Ayt Seghrouchen (A.S.)

Only differences from Ayt Ayache (A.A.) grammar are discussed here.

1   These are /d:/ and /n:/ in A.S., e.g.,

/raḥ/	to go
/i-raḥ-d:/	he came
/i-raḥ-n:/	he went there

2   In A.S. the present tense prefix is only /l:a-/, e.g.,

       /l:a-i-tᵴum:/   he is swimming

3   In A.S. the progressive or inchoative prefix is /al-/, e.g.,

       /al-i-t:ᵴum:/   he started to swim

4   In A.S. this morpheme is /is-/ which is the Interrogative particle. In most cases in future construction /is-/ is followed by /-d-/, a particle of emphasis, e.g.,

       /is-d-ad-i-ᵴum:/   will he swim?

5   The particle is /is-/ but it precedes a verb stem in the Habitual form without a present tense prefix; e.g.,

       /is-i-t:ᵴum:/   is he swimming? does he swim?

6   In A.S. there are two negative particles:
(a) /ur-/ before V, SV, ... in the past and before VH in the formation of the future negative and (b) /ul:i-/ before VH, SVH, ... (present); e.g., 216

/i-ʕum:/   he swam

/ur-i-ʕum:/   he did not swim

/l:a-i-t:ʕum:/   he is swimming

/ul:i-i-t:ʕum:/   he is not swimming

/adiʕum:/   he will swim

/urit:ʕum:/   he will not swim

9 Ablaut in Ayt Seghrouchen may be summed up as follows:

i. Unablauted stems: show no ablaut (neither in affirmative not negative) and are represented by the verb stems /ʕum:/ 'to swim' of the structure ‖AVC‖ , /barš/ 'to congratulate' of the structure ‖AVCD‖ , /bd:/ 'to stand up' of the structure ‖AB:‖ , /dž:/ 'to let', /f:u/ 'to dawn', and /bḍu/ 'to divide' of the structure ‖ABV‖. For conjugations see Table #4 -11 (A.S.).

ii. Ablauted Stems:

(a) ∅:0 ablaut are stems which have no ablaut in Affirmative past but have /i/ ablaut in the negative. This is represented by /frh/ 'to be happy' /bry/ 'to grind' (see Table 16 (A.S.) for changes in /-y#/ of this type), /qr:r/ 'to decide', /bndq/ 'to bow', /l:ɣ̣m/ 'to twist' and /z:ʕ/ 'to dismiss' of the structure ‖A(:)B(:)(C)(D)‖ . For conjugations see Tables #12 - 23 (A.S.).

(b) i/a ablaut for members of the ‖ABa#‖ structure represented here by /bda/ 'to start'. This group has /i/ ablaut for first and second person singular and /a/ for the rest of the PNG paradigm. This is the only group that is ablauted in the future. For conjugations see Tables #24 - 27 (A.S.).

(c) i/u ablaut occurs with verbs as /iž/ 'to do', /k:/ 'to pass' /ls/ 'to shear' of the structure ‖A(:)‖ or ‖AB‖ . /i/ occurs with PNG: 1s, 2s, 2pm,f and 3pm,f. /u/ occurs with PNG: 3m,f and 1p. For conjugations see Tables #28 - 31 (A.S.).

(d) a - u ablaut refers to change of a to u, e.g., /adf/ 'to enter' or /džal:/ 'to swear' of the structure ‖aBd‖ or ‖(A)BaD‖ . For conjugations see Tables #32 - 35 (A.S.).

(e) a - i ablaut refers to change of a to i for only two verbs, namely /awḍ/ ' to reach', /awy/ 'to take away'.
See conjugations in Tables #36 - 39 (A.S.).

10 Stem derivations in Ayt Seghrouchen differ slightly in their realization from those in Ayt Ayache. (See Sample Appendix B.)

11 Rules for Temporal Modal and Participle derivations in A.S. are identical with those of A.A. except for the difference in Temp-Mod Affixes mentioned in #2 - 6 above.

12 Differences in Verb Morphophonemics are here listed for A.S.:

  Rule 5 /ḍ-ṭ:/ ⟶ ḍṭ:

       /i-ˤaṛḍ-ṭ:/ ⟶ iˤaṛḍṭ: he invited her

  Rule 10 /-d-d#/ ⟶ dd:
       /-d-d-/ ⟶ d:
       /i-waˤ d-d/ ⟶ iwaˤ dd: he came (+ proximity)
       /ad-d-ˤawn-γ/ ⟶ ad:ˤawnγ I'll help (+ proximity)

  Rule 13 /-γ-x#/ ⟶ /x:/

Verb Sample Appendices and List

Introduction to Appendix A (from Ayt Ayache)

Appendix A contains 77 unaugmented verb stems and their derivatives arranged alphabetically according to the class or sub-class to which V belongs (see Chapter 4 for classification of verb stems). The alphabetical order for classes and sub-classes both in the Appendix and the verb list is:

a b b: d d: ḍ ḍ: f f: g g: g̣ g̣: h ḥ ḥ: i k k: ḳ ḳ:
l l: ḷ ḷ: m m: n n: q q: q̣ q̣: r r: ṛ ṛ: s s: ṣ ṣ:
š š: t t: ṭ ṭ: u w w: x x: x̣ y y: z z: ẓ ẓ: ž ž:
ʕ ɣ ɣ: ɣ̣

Each of the numbers 1-77 in Appendix A   and 1-450 in the verb list refers to an unaugmented verb stem and its derivatives.
The 450 verb stems represent the verbs of the corpus of the research on the Ayt Ayache dialect. As they appear in the verb list, they are grouped into two types: A - unablauted (1-115), B - ablauted (116-450). Each type has two classes,
A and B, which in turn are grouped into sub-classes with an Arabic numeral preceding each sub-class. At the beginning of each class in the Appendix appears the general underlying structure of its sub-classes; at the beginning of each sub-class appear the maximum possibilities for its underlying structure with an illustrative example or examples used to name the sub-class: e.g., in the Appendix Class I of type A appears as

    Unablauted
       1.   A(B)(C)a
       2.   AVC
       3.   ABVC

and sub-class I appears as

       1.   Aa   fa
              AB(C)a   šk:a, štka
              AVCa   dawa, fuk:a

Sometimes more examples are shown listed in the Appendix.

There are two major sets for any listing (V and its derivatives) in the Appendix. One set is that of unaugmented forms, the other of augmented forms. A maximum of five listings a) to e) appears, in most cases, for each set.

For the unaugmented set:

a) lists V followed by an English translation as infinitive without 'to'. Next to the meaning the symbol 'ar' means Arabic loan, 'ma' Moroccan Arabic loan; no symbol means native or Tamazight.[*] Finally "t" means transitive, "i" intransitive, "n" (i.e. neutral) both transitive and intransitive.

b) lists the habitual form of the simple stem VH

c) lists a noun of action derived from the simple stem: N-act. Parenthesis show a plural if it exists: e.g. 5 c) afuk:a (ifuk:atn)[]; or a plural suffix 9 c) s:wal (-at)

d) lists a noun of agent. If no further information follows, this means that the noun under consideration is a "Sound" masculine singular (ms) noun which follows a regular pattern in deriving a masculine plural (mp), a feminine singular (fs) and a feminine plural (fp): e.g. 22 d) /amkašf/ 'fortune-teller' (ms) derives: /imkašfn/ (mp), /tamkašft/ (fs), /timkašfin/ (fp). If the derivations do not follow the above pattern, they are listed with plurals (or plural prefixes) in parenthesis: e.g.

[*] This information is, of course, debatable. However, the author's native knowledge of Arabic, the discussion of these verb stems and their derivatives with the informant and the consultation of various dictionaries, such as Wehr's and Harrell's lead the author to the conclusions shown in this Appendix.

[] Numbers refer to the place of V in Appendix A.

36 d) bulḥm:am (id-)

   m:lḥm:am (ist-)

Some nouns are followed by *f which means that mp is a possible derivation whereas fs and fp are not:
e.g. 28 d) abr:aḥ ; *f

e) lists a noun (ms or fs) followed by (instr.) if it is a noun of instrument, (loc.) if it is a noun of place, or (occup.) if it is a noun of occupation:
e.g.

36 e) lḥm:am (loc.)

46 e) lᵴbra (instr.)

Plurals appear in parenthesis if they exist.

Augmented stems appear in this order: Causative, Reciprocal, and Passive. The maximum number of forms that any augmented stem can show is three a) to c) where

a) lists causative SV, reciprocal MV, passive TuV which are all derived from unaugmented V

b) lists habitual forms of causative SVH, of reciprocal MVH, of passive TuVH.

c) lists a N-act derived from the causative SV or the reciprocal MV (rather then from V): e.g.

25 c) amᵴawan

a) and b) of the recipro-causative forms appear partly in the causative and partly in the reciprocal columns. These are:

a) MSV

b) MSVH

e.g. 4 a) msfafa

b) t:msfafa

Appendix A   is compiled on the basis of derivation and occurrence.*   That is, V is the starting formative from which the other forms are derived by rules of generative grammar.

The justification of the horizontal order,

a) V   SV   MSV   MV   TuV

is based on derivation of all augmented forms from V.
Note that some MSV's can occur without corresponding SV's which shows they are derived from V's: e.g.

43 a) msl:am

b) t:msl:am

The order SV   MSV   MV is justified by the derivation of MSV from SV. The Passive is the form with the least occurrence and the one the least used even when it occurs. The informant said that it is preferrable to use the active rather than the passive as much as possible.
Its main occurrence is with the third person, however it may occur with other persons. Sometimes a passive is derived from SV; e.g. 33 TuSV (t:usfrḥ); for these reasons, the passive form is put last.

The justification of the vertical order is that all forms on lines b) and c) are derived from a). Forms on line d) are derived (in many instances) from c): e.g.

29 a) bš:r

b) t:bš:ar

c) abš:r

d) abš:ar

Frequency of occurrence is also an important factor (see footnote).

---

*   For percentages of occurrence, see Abdel-Massih, Ernest, Tamazight Verb Structure: A Generative Approach, University of Indiana:Bloomington, 1971, Table 97. The total number of the unaugmented verb stems (450) comprises the 100% shown in the table; the other percentages listed are based on the total number of the unaugmented verb stems (450 = 100%). The percentage of SV is 35.11, MV 31.11, MSV 13.55, TuV 31.77, N-act 78.22, N-agt 19.33 and N-instr, loc, occup 3.33.

The system shown in Appendix A is an open system. Thus,
for example, 20 /ḥaḍr/ 'be present' has /sḥaḍr/ - SV, /sḥaḍar/ - SVH whereas 78 /kašf/ 'foretell' has no causative stems. The causative of /kašf/ is left blank, however, if a native speaker of Tamazight supplies a causative
for this stem it will be one that the generative rules for causative derivation have stated in VI.4.3. The same is true for other derivations.

Throughout the Appendix transitivity is marked only for V and VH. SV's (and SVH's) are necessarily transitive whether or not the underlying V is transitive. TuV's are mainly derived from transitive V's; however, TuV's (and TuVH's) are intransitive and have as their subject the direct object of V's.

All the above information applies to Appendix B (from Ayt Seghrouchen), except that Appendix B is not followed by a Verb List as is Appendix A.

Sentences

This section lists examples of the different structures of Tamazight. The examples consist of 157 pairs of sentences. When a certain structure or sub-structure is discussed, it is usually followed by one or more pairs of sentences to exemplify the occurrence of such structure. The first member of each pair of sentences is from Ayt Ayache, the second from Ayt Seghrouchen.

Sentences

Introduction

The discussion of sentences in Tamazight includes

A.   The Verbless Sentence

B.   The Verbal Sentence.

Each of these two types of structure can have any of the following modes:

1.   Affirmative
2.   Interrogative
3.   Negative
4.   Negative-Interrogative

The structures mentioned above (A.1 - A.4 and B.1 - B.4) as well as Imperative structures which are grouped under C, will be found in the following examples. The examples include 157 pairs of sentences from the two dialects (i.e. 157 from Ayt Ayache and 157 from Ayt Seghrouchen). When examples of a certain structure or sub-structure are cited, usually one or more pairs of sentences follow a short discussion. The first sentence in each given pair is in the dialect of Ayt Ayache, the second is in the Ayt Seghrouchen dialect.

A.1 Verbless: Affirmative

Examples of such sentences are:

1.   (A.A.) isminw muḥa .

      (A.S.) isminw muḥa .

My name is Mohamed.

2. (A.A.)   lᵉmṛinw   tlatin   ꜥam .

    (A.S.)   lᵉmṛinw   tlatin   ꜥam .

I am 30 years old.

A Verbless Affirmative structure may occur with /ɣur/ A.A. or /ɣr/ A.S. 'particle of possession.' Examples:

3. (A.A.)   ɣuṛs   yut   trbat: .

    (A.S.)   ɣrs   išt   ntrbat: .

He has a girl.

4. (A.A.)   ɣuṛi   ṛbꜥa   ntfunasin .

    (A.S.)   ɣri   ṛbꜥa   ntfunasin .

I have four cows.

or structures having the 'presentational particles' /ha/, /han/
A.A., /ha/, /han:/ A.S. Examples:

5. (A.A.)   ha   n:ꜥnaꜥ .

    (A.S.)   ha   n:ꜥnaꜥ .

Here is the mint.

6. (A.A.)   han   ataynš .

    (A.S.)   han: at:ayn:š .

Here is your tea.

or with the help of /d/, 'particle of assertion.' Examples:

    7. (A.A.) muha   dargaz   nimru   wahd   .

        (A.S.) muha   daryaz   n:imirwahd   .

        Mohamed is in fact an excellent man.

    8. (A.A.) lhusayn   dargaz   .

        (A.S.) lhusayn   daryaz   .

        Lahoucine is indeed a man.

or as a greeting or a response to a greeting. Examples:

    9. (A.A.) s:alamuʕlik:um   .

        (A.S.) s:alamuʕlik:um   .

        Hello. (to a man by a man)

    10. (A.A.) sbah   lxir   amuha   .

        (A.S.) sbah   lxir   amuha   .

        Good morning, Mohamed.

A.2 Verbless: Interrogative

    Such sentences may occur in structures similar to the above with an interrogative tome to them. Examples:

    11. (A.A.) lwašun   labas   ?

        (A.S.) lwašun   labas   ?

        How is the family?

12. (A.A.) ɣurs sbʕa išir:an ?

(A.S.) ɣrs   sbʕa l:wašun ?

Does he have seven children?

13. (A.A.) šg: dmi ?

(A.S.) wak:d šk: ?

You (ms) and who else?

or with the interrogative particle /is/ before such structures
as the following:

14. (A.A.) is ɣurš šal lwašun ?

(A.S.) is ɣrš šal lwašun ?

Do you have children?

They also occur with question words. Examples:

15. (A.A.) mismnš ?

(A.S.) mismn:š ?

What is your name (ms) ?

16. (A.A.) šhal ylʕmrnš ?

(A.S.) mšhal ilʕmrn:š ?

How much is this djellaba?

18. (A.A.) mani muha ?

(A.S.) mani muha ?

Where is Mohamed?

A.3 Verbless: Negative

These structures occur with /ur-/ 'negative particle' in A.A. and A.S. or /urid:-/ 'It's not' in A.A. and A.S. Examples:

19. (A.A.) urɣuri lflus .

(A.S.) urɣri lflus .

22. (A.A.) urid: nt:a .

     (A.S.) ulid: nt:a .

     It's not him.

23. (A.A.) urid: šg: .

     (A.S.) ulid: šk: .

     It's not you.

A.4 Verbless: Negative - Interrogative

Such structures are achieved with the use of /isur-/ Negative - Interrogative particle in both dialects. Examples:

24. (A.A.) isur ɣurs lflus ?

     (A.S.) is urɣrs lflus ?

     Doesn't he have money?

25. (A.A.) isurid: ḥšuma ɣifš ?

     (A.S.) isulid: ḥšuma xš ?

     Aren't you (ms) ashamed?

26. (A.A.) isurid: nt:a ?

     (A.S.) isulid: nt:a ?

Had clouds not appeared yesterday, rain would not have fallen today.

96. (A.A.) mrid: isurastidiši , adastis:utr .

      (A.S.) mlid: isurastidiwši , adastis:utr .

Had he not given it (m) to him (nearer), he would have asked him for it (m).

97. (A.A.) mrid: ša yadn urt:it:awy sql: mn

              st:my:at ryal .

      (A.S.) mlid: hd: dnin , urt:it:awy sql:

              mn st:my:at ryal .

If it were somebody else, I would not have sold it (f)
for less than 600 Rials.

The use of Aorist in narration to denote a perfective, imper-
fective or future action (i.e. past, present or future) is exemplified in the following sentences.

98. (A.A.) idl:i id:a muha γr s:uq: isγ sk:r

              day i'ayd: γr tad:art .

      (A.S.) idn:at: irah muha γr s:uq: isγ sk:ar day i'id γr tad:art .

Yesterday, Moha went to the market, bought sugar,
then came back home.

99. (A.A.) k:u s:bah ad:ay tk:r g:its dats:aγa l'afit day ts:nw aman day t'm:r atay

              day tls i'ban: l:xdmt day td:u sigran .

(A.S.)   kul: s:baḥ ad:ay tk:r ᵶg:nud:m , l:at:saɣa

l٢afit , day ts:nw aman , day t٢m:r at:ay ,

day tirḍ i٢ban: l:xdnt day twa٢d iẓran .

Every morning when she wakes up, she makes a fire and boils water, then makes tea, then puts on work clothes and then goes to the fields.

100. (A.A.) ask:a adid:u ɣr s:uq adiz:nz imndi ,

isɣ yut tqb:ut: , i٢dl iduša day

i٢ayd: ɣr tad:art .

(A.S.) dutša adirah ɣr s:uq: adiz:nz imndi

isɣ išt ntqb:ut: , i٢dl iduša day

i٢idd: ɣr tad:art .

Tomorrow he will go to the market to sell wheat, buy a djellaba, repair shoes, and then go back home.

B.2 Verbal: Interrogative

This is achieved by the use of this interrogative particle /is-/ prefixed to a verb in the past (A.A. and A.S.) or the interrogative particle /id:-/ (A.A.) or /isd-/ (A.S.) prefixed to a verb in the future. Examples:

101. (A.A.) is ifṛh muha ?

      (A.S.) is ifrh muha ?

Is Mohamed happy?

102. (A.A.) is i٢m:r s:uq: maduhu ?

      (A.S.) is i٢m:r s:uq:u mad ihi ?

Is the market full or not?

103. (A.A.) isdats:am atay ytmazirtn:un mad uhu ?

      (A.S.) ists:m at:ay itmirtn:un mad ihi ?

      Do you (mp) drink tea in your country or not?

104. (A.A.) id:adimɛawan miha dɛli ?

      (A.S.) isdadimɛawan miha dɛli ?

      Will Mohamed and Aly help each other?

Notice that the use of the particles mentioned above causes the moveable particles to be pre-verbal. Examples:

105. (A.A.) isastiɣrf ?

      (A.S.) isastiɣrf ?

      Did he throw it (m) at him?

106. (A.A.) isastidiša ?

      (A.S.) isastidyušu ?

      Did he give it (m) to him (nearer)?

107. (A.A.) isast:iša ?

      (A.S.) isast:yušu ?

      Did he give it (f) to him (nearer)?

108. (A.A.) isastidit:awy ?

      (A.S.) isastidit:awy ?

      Is he bringing it (m) to him (nearer)?

309

Two verbs might occur in such constructions. Examples:

109. (A.A.) istrid at:dud γr s:uq: ?

(A.S.) is tbγit at:raht γr s:uq: ?

Do you want to go to the market?

110. (A.A.) isaš in:a adid:u ?

(A.S.) isaš in:a dad:irah ?

Did he tell you that he will go?

111. (A.A.) isd:an adqdᶜn ?

(A.S.) israhn adqdᶜn ?

Did they go to register the marriage?

112. (A.A.) id:ad:d:un adγifnγk:n ?

(A.S.) isdad:rahn adixnxk:n ?

Will they come to visit us (nearer)?

The use of question words in interrogative sentences is exemplified by the following.

113. (A.A.) maγr id:a ᶜli ?

(A.S.) maniγr irah ᶜli ?

Where did Aly go?

114. (A.A.)   mag:a   s:uq: as:a   ?

      (A.S.)   mag:žu   s:uq: idu   ?

      How is the market today?

115. (A.A.)   may   γuṛun   did:an   ?

      (A.S.)   wid: γrun   iṛaḥ   ?

      Who came to your (mp) house?

Sentence #116 below shows that the moveable particle /-aš-/
'to you' is preverbal in the environment of the question word /ma/
'what':

116. (A.A.)   maš   tga   ṣ:aḥt   ?

      (A.S.)   maš   tžu   ṣ:aḥt   ?

      How are you (ms) ?

B.3 Verbal: Negative

This is achieved by the negative prefix /ur-/ in A.A. and A.S. before verbs in the past or /ur-/ in A.A. and /ul:i-/ in A.S. before habitual stems. Examples:

117. (A.A.)   uryan:ay   ag:d   yun   bnadm   .

      (A.S.)   urizṛi   ulad   idž   nbnadm   .

      He did not see a single person.

118. (A.A.)   urtyan:ay   ag:d   yun   bnadm   .

      (A.S.)   urtizri   ulad   idž   nbnadm   .

      Not even a single person saw him.

119. (A.A.)   urdžin: an:ayɣ   am: wa   .

120. (A.A.)   urdžin: d:iɣ   ɣr   s:uq: nmidlt   .

      (A.S.)   ur   ʿmri   ṛahx   ɣr   s:uq: nmidlt   .

      I never went to the Midelt market.

121. (A.A.)   ur:iɣ   ad:uɣ   ɣr   s:uq: .

      I $\left\{\begin{array}{l}\text{do}\\\text{did}\end{array}\right\}$ not want to go to the market.

122. (A.A.)   urdayit:iʿžib   t:f:ah   .

      (A.S.)   ul:iyiyt:iʿžib   t:f:ah   .

      I don't like apples.

123. (A.A.)   urdat:d:uɣ   ɣr   s:uq: nmidlt   .

      (A.S.)   ul:ig:urx   ɣr   s:uq: nmidlt   .

      I never go to the Midelt market.

The occurrence of the negative particles /ur-/ or /ul:i-/ causes the moveable particles to be preverbal. Examples:

124.   (A.A.)   urdtd:i ɣr s:uq: as:a .

     (A.S.)   urd:traḥ ɣr s:uq: iḍu .

She did not come to market today.

125.   (A.A.)   urn:t:d:u ɣr s:uq: ask:a .

     (A.S.)   urn:tg:ur ɣr s:uq: dutša .

She will not go (far) to the market tomorrow.

126.   (A.A.)   urtidniwy .

     (A.S.)   urtidniwy .

We did not bring it (m) (nearer).

127.   (A.A.)   urn:id:i ɣr s:uq: ,   urixdim g:granns .

     (A.S.)   urn:iraḥ ɣr s:uq: ,   urixdim g:žrann:s .

He neither went (far) to the market nor worked in his fields.

128.   (A.A.)   urastidiši .

     (A.S.)   urastiḍyuši .

He did not give it (m) to him (nearer).

313

B.4 Verbal: Negative-Interrogative

This structure is achieved by the prefixation of /isur-/ to a verb. /isur-/ also causes the moveable particles to be preverbal. Examples:

129. (A.A.) isurastiši ?

      (A.S.) isurastiwši ?

      Didn't he give it (m) to him?

130. (A.A.) isurast:idiši ?

      (A.S.) isurast:d:yuši ?

      Didn't he give it (f) to him (nearer)?

131. (A.A.) isurast:idit:awy ?

      (A.S.) isurast:d:it:awy ?

      Isn't he bringing it (f) to him (nearer)?

132. (A.A.) isurixdim muḥa as:a ?

      (A.S.) isurixdim muḥa iḏu ?

      Didn't Mohamed cook today?

314

C.   Imperative Structures

An imperative structure can occur without a verb, e.g.
(A.A.) the use of the particle /awra/ 'Come! '

    133.   (A.A.)   awra .

           (A.S.)   awru .

        Come!

Other than that, all imperative structures include a verb.
Imperative structures directed to second person may contain one or more verbs. Examples of such imperatives with one verb are

    134.   (A.A.)   xdm !

           (A.S.)   xdm !

        Work!

    135.   (A.A.)   xdm   amiha !

           (A.S.)   xdm   amiha !

        Work, Mohamed!

    136.   (A.A.)   xd:m   asidi !

           (A.S.)   xd:m   asidi !

        Do work, Mister!   or   Get in the habit of working, Mister!

137. (A.A.) ns ylman .

     (A.A.) ns ylman .

Good night.

138. (A.A.) ini nʕam imayš .

     (A.S.) ini nʕam iym:aš .

Answer your mother.

Notice that habitual stems can occur to express an energetic Imperative. Example:

139. (A.A.) xd:m .

     (A.S.) xd:m .

Do work! Or Get in the habit of working.

Examples of Imperatives having two verbs in the imperative:

140. (A.A.) d:u xdm !

     (A.S.) sir xdm !

Go work!

141. (A.A.) d:ut munat .

     (A.S.) sirm munm .

Go together.

316

Examples of sentences having one verb in the imperative and another verb in the future to express such ideas as "go in order to work" are

142. (A.A.) q:is ša yzlan imɪha adis:ɣd .

      (A.S.) q:is ša yzlan imɪha adis:ɣd .

Sing some songs to Muha so that he can hear you.

143. (A.A.) ad:ud atsl:md xf unbyi .

      (A.S.) awru at:sl:mt xunuži .

Come greet the guest.

144. (A.A.) d:uyat at:z:nzm irdn .

      (A.S.) sirm at:z:nzm irdn .

Go (mp) to sell the wheat.

145. (A.A.) d:uyat at:sl:mm xf muha .

      (A.S.) sirm at:sl:mm xmuha .

Go (mp) and say hello to the young man.

Second person Imperative structures could be expressed without the use of an imperative form. Examples here use /ixs:a/ 'It's necessary, you have to' followed by a verb in the future form.

146. (A.A.) ixs:a aditinid lhq: .

      (A.S.) ixs: adinit lhq: .

You have to tell me the truth.

147.   (A.A.)   ixṣ:a   aditidtawid   adan:ayɣ   .

        (A.S.)   ixṣ:   aditit:awit   at:zrx   .

Bring him here so that I see him.

148.   (A.A.)   ixṣ:a   aditrẓmd   tawaryit:a   .

        (A.S.)   ixṣ:   aditrẓmt   tiržit:u   .

You must explain that dream for me.

Negative Imperative (second person) structures are realized by the use of /adur-/ before a habitual stem.
Notice /adur-/ causes the moveable affixes to be preverbal.

149.   (A.A.)   adurdt:lʕab   da   .

        (A.S.)   adurd:t:lʕab   da   .

Don't play (nearer) here.

150.   (A.A.)   adurastidt:awy   .

        (A.S.)   adurastidt:awy   .

Don't bring it (m) nearer.

151.   (A.A.)   adurastidtak:at   dɣi   .

        (A.S.)   adurastidtšitšt   durt:x

Don't give it (m) to him (nearer) now.

First person imperatives (i.e. hortatory or cohortative constructions expressing an exhortation or suggestion for first person) occur with verb /k:r/ 'to get up' or the particle /yal:ah/ 'let us'. Examples:

152. (A.A.) yal:ah answ atay ,

    (A.S.) yal:ah answ at:ay .

Let us (go and) have (drink) tea.

153. (A.A.) yal:ah and:u answ:q: .

    (A.S.) yal:ah an:rah an:sw:q .

Let us go and shop.

154. (A.A.) k:ray and:u yr s:uq: .

    (A.S.) k:rax an:rah yr s:uq: .

Let us (mp) go to the market.

155. (A.A.) k:ray and:u t:afad an:awd zik: answ:q: .

    (A.S.) k:rax an:rah t:af an:awd ziš an:sw:q .

Let us (mp) go so we will be there early and stop.

156. (A.A.) k:rntay and:u yr tad:art .

    (A.S.) k:rntax an:rah yr tad:art .

319

The Aorist may be used after an imperative form to express second person imperative. Example:

157. (A.A.) d:u ɣr ʕari tzdmd: šay sɣar̤: tgd

lʕafit tssnud aksum iwnbyi .

(A.S.) sir ɣl lʕri tzdntd: šay sɣaɱ , tžt

lʕafit , ts:nut aysum iwnuži .

Go to the mountain, collect (nearer) some wood, make a fire and cook meat for the guest.
