

(U//FOUO) Friedman Presentation: The US in Asia: The White House Roadmap

FROM: Marilyn Maines
Deputy Chief, Strategic Intelligence Issues (S17)
Run Date: 03/10/2005

(U//FOUO) Come to the following SINIO Council Speaker Series Event on 24 March, 1000-1130:

(U//FOUO) Now that the dust has settled and the US Administration's second-term team is formed, how will the White House tackle tough problems in Asia? Is there a solution to the India-Pakistan problem? How do we achieve a comprehensive resolution to the multitude of North Korea threats (conventional military, WMD development and proliferation, narcotrafficking and other illicit behavior)? Do we confront, co-opt, or concede influence to a rising China?

(U//FOUO) Dr. Michael Green, the Special Assistant to the President and NSC Sr. Director for Asia will discuss the White House perspective on these and other pressing foreign policy issues confronting the United States.

Where: Friedman Auditorium

When: 24 March, 1000-1130

Who: Fully cleared US personnel only. No registration is required -- just show up!
